Mike Tomlin Bio

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers' history.

In Tomlin's five years as head coach, he has guided the Steelers' defense to the NFL's top ranking in total defense three times. He has also sent a total of 36 selections to the league's annual Pro Bowl, including five following the 2011 season. Tomlin has reached the playoffs four times in his first five seasons, including two trips to the Super Bowl (winning Super Bowl XLIII).

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers' head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has compiled a 55-25 record in the regular season during his five-year head coaching career. His .688 winning percentage in his first five seasons is the best in team history and it is the highest winning percentage amongst active NFL coaches. In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team has posted 12 wins, which marks only the second time in team history it has been achieved.

The Steelers finished the 2011 season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, upping his record at Heinz Field in his five seasons as head coach to 31-9. Tomlin's seven road wins during the regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978, 2004 and 2010. He also had five players (QB Ben Roethlisberger, WR Mike Wallace, C Maurkice Pouncey, S Troy Polamalu and KR/WR Antonio Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed, points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Hines Ward, WR Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record in 2009 after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers' history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers' head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and pass (176.5 avg.), and it also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by running back Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. Under Tomlin in 2006, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State where he coached wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Coach Tomlin Press Conference
January 9, 2012

Coach Tomlin: Good afternoon. We are still coming to grips with what happened last night and how it unfolded, and the fact that our journey has come to an end. We acknowledge that there can only be one, and it's not us this year. That's what stings. Not only was it a goal but it's what we were working towards. There are always tough feelings that come with that. That's part of this deal. We will move forward. At the appropriate time, we will start the process of chasing it again in 2012. I am extremely proud of the group of men that represent us, and what they are willing to do, more than what they are capable of doing. What they are capable of is impressive but I respect what those men are willing to do, not only in terms of the cause but what they do for one another. I enjoyed this group. A quick assessment of some injuries, we had three significant ones in the game. Max Starks had an ACL injury of some description. He is getting that looked at here today to determine whether or not surgery will be required. Same can be said for Casey Hampton. He has an ACL injury. He will be evaluated today to see if he will require surgery. Brett Keisel has a significant groin injury. He's getting that looked at today to see if he will need surgery. All the other injuries you know about. Those guys are all in the process of rehabilitation. Our philosophy as we push into the offseason is to attack these issues and to be aggressive in dealing with them. We want to do them sooner rather than later, if procedures are going to be required. What we are going to do here over the next several days is wrap a bow around all of the operations. We are going to visit with people, housekeeping-type things. We will start the process of building for 2012. Yesterday was a losing performance by us. We tip our cap to the Denver Broncos, and we will join the rest of the league in watching those guys move forward to Indianapolis.

At some point did it seem that injuries were piling up and a lot of the veterans were out?
That's a human response, but not for long. You can't have those moments and do what we are trying to do, which of course is to win. Injuries are a part of the game. You aren't going to be so fortunate that you don't have to deal with them. We dealt with them to the best of our abilities, and it is what it is. We feel like we are fully capable of playing winning football with the men that we had out there last night, and obviously we didn't do the job.

Would you attack Tim Tebow the same way?
Probably, the responsibilities associated with defending their run gaps kind of dictated at times how you attack them. Obviously they made some nice plays on us, and in hindsight you would analyze with a fine tooth comb some of the things you did, but I think your options are limited in terms of how you attack them because of run gap responsibilities.

What was Mundy's responsibility and read on the last play of the game?
I am not going to get into Mundy's individual responsibilities or alignments on that particular play. What I will say is that they made a nice football play, and obviously we didn't

Why would you go coverage-zero in that situation?
We had done it in several instances leading up to that point. It wasn't zero particularly, by the way, it was zone coverage, and it was just inverted, so that the safeties could fit in the run box. If you guys want to get into the specifics of football, so it was an inverted-zone coverage where the safeties were close to the line of scrimmage so they could play alley responsibilities in terms of the run game, and they had a nice play-action on us.

It seemed more high risk than what you do traditionally.
No, we have done that, and done it a bit particularly versus a wildcat and wildcat type attacks, and formations and things.

Coach Tomlin Press Conference

Will Maurkice Pouncey need surgery?
Potentially, we are going to see specifically what his situation is, and how we can best move forward into 2012, and if that includes surgery, obviously we will explore doing that. There are a lot of people of course that are playing with injury, and discomfort, and so forth. Surgery might be an option for those guys. Doug Legursky, has been dealing a shoulder situation. There are a myriad of those things. That is part of the process we are going trough as we speak right now, 12 o'clock today. Some of the exit physicals and interview processes started.

Did the lockout affect Pouncey to not get the proper care needed for his ankle during the offseason or is the aggravation of his ankle just football?
It's just football, as far as I am concerned. I hadn't looked at the lockout's affect on things of that nature. It is just something that we have dealt with for a better part of the season, obviously, but it is just football.

Is Ben a candidate for surgery?
No, I don't think he is going to be a candidate for surgery.

Have you seen Tim Tebow throw with such frequency?
He threw some very accurate passes down the field to some big guys who made nice plays on it. Sometimes people are going to throw and catch balls. I thought the run after was significant on a number of them, or their ability to create yardage after the catch. Sometimes guys are going to make nice throws, and have challenged catches on you, and you tackle them immediately and it minimizes the damage. In many of those instances they were able to reel up significant amounts of yardage after the catch.

Is it unfair to say that your game plan showed that you didn't think Tebow was capable of doing it?
Anything is fair at this juncture. We accept responsibility for losing. We understand what comes with that.

Do you anticipate both of your coordinators returning?
I anticipate it, but of course we all understand what the end of the season is about, and movement is a part of it in today's NFL for players and coaches. We are going to try to maintain continuity like we always do. We believe that is a benefit to us, but we also understand that things can happen, and we will deal with those as they arrive?

How much of a say when it comes to Bruce Arians do you give Ben in a decision like that?
None. Not from a coaches perspective. Not from a staff building perspective. None. Of course just in terms of hearing his opinion from a players-coach relationship, the same amount of say that you give anybody that is in a significant position of contribution to our football team

Re: The identity of the team changing:
There's always going to be changes. There are changes every year. I am not going to sit here and pretend like there's not going to be changes. To what extent, at this point I am not ready to address. That's why I enjoy these journeys. They are precious. At the end of this thing, the wheels do continue to turn. There will be some changes. We will see where this all takes us. Right now, I just have a great deal of respect and appreciation for the men in that room and what they are willing to do for us this year.

Coach Tomlin Press Conference
January 9, 2012

Will there be more change than in the past?
I don't want to quantify it again, because I would be speculating. I just acknowledge that change is a part of this thing.

When do you look at the roster and decide when to move forward?
Formally and informally it starts immediately. I think that's how we are wired. I love what I do. The wheels continue to turn, and it's time to start building for 2012. Informally it's already started. That's what this thing is all about.

Re: Ike Taylor's performance last night versus his overall season:
Such is life in the NFL. We have a great deal of respect for Taylor and what he's willing to do for us. That's one of the guys that I think about when I talk about what the group is willing to do for us. Week-in and week-out he's willing to step in and accept the challenge of covering tough receivers. Guys like Lawrence Timmons, who will play anywhere we ask them to play, due to injuries to other players, I just like the contributions of all the men.

How far were you going to let Shaun Suisham kick at the end of regulation?
We were comfortable anywhere from the low-to-mid 50s. Obviously it didn't develop.

Was there anything you would have done differently with managing the clock?
I hadn't thought a great deal about it, to be honest with you. Hindsight is just that.

Re: Maurkice Pouncey being upset with fans on Twitter, and did you talk to him about it?
I hadn't seen him since last night.

Have any of the players that had season-ending surgeries talked with you about retiring?
We haven't had any of those discussions yet. I acknowledge that this is still pretty fresh in our minds. We just got back a few hours ago. None of those things have had time to develop as of yet.

What does Hines Ward mean to this team, organization and city?
I don't know what I can say about Ward that hasn't already been said. We love Hines.

Re: Calling timeout when Emmanuel Sanders rolled out of bounds:
The referee was winding the clock, saying that Sanders was inbounds. That's why I called time out. He did roll out of bounds but the referee that was right in front of me was acknowledging that it was an inbounds play. The clock was going to run so I called timeout.

Any updates on Coach Kirby Wilson?
Not right now. No.

2011 Season-in-Review Notes

STEELERS POSTSEASON INFORMATION

Steelers' Postseason Notes:

• With a 29-23 overtime loss to the Denver Broncos in the Wild Card round of the 2011 Playoffs, the Steelers fell to 4-4 all-time in Wild Card Playoff games.

Pittsburgh has responded well after losing in the Wild Card Round. Two of the three times the Steelers went on to win a Super Bowl (IX, XLIII) the season after they lost a Wild Card Playoff game. The other loss was followed by a four-point loss in the AFC Championship the next season.

Date	Opponent	Result
12/31/89	Houston Oilers	W, 26-23
1/8/94	at Kansas City Chiefs	L, 24-27 (OT)
12/29/96	Indianapolis Colts	W, 42-14
1/5/03	Cleveland Browns	W, 36-33
1/8/06	at Cincinnati Bengals	W, 31-17
1/5/07	Jacksonville Jaguars	L, 31-29
1/8/12	at Denver Broncos	L, 29-23

• Pittsburgh's 29-23 overtime loss at Denver this postseason was the fifth overtime postseason game in Steelers' history. Pittsburgh is 2-3 in those contests (1-3 on the road), with all games being decided by three points (except for the Broncos game). All three of the Steelers' losses have come on the road. Below is a list of all the overtime games Pittsburgh has played in the postseason:

Date	Opponent	Result	Round
12/31/89	@ Houston	W 26-23	Wild Card
1/8/94	@ Kansas City	L 24-27	Wild Card
1/11/03	@ Tennessee	L 31-34	Divisional
1/15/05	vs. New York Jets	W 20-17	Divisional
1/8/12	@ Denver	L 23-29	Wild Card

• The Steelers are 2-1 on the road in the Wild Card round.

• In 2005, the Steelers became the first No. 6 seed in NFL history to win the Super Bowl. Since then two other Wild Card teams have gone on to win the Super Bowl ('10 Green Bay, sixth seed and '07 Giants, fifth seed).

• The Steelers are 33-22 (.600) in the postseason, including a 20-10 record at home, a 7-10 mark on the road and a 6-2 record at neutral sites (Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV, XXX, XL, XLIII and XLV).

• The Steelers have played in the Super Bowl three times since 2005. Pittsburgh's eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys. The Steelers' six wins in the Super Bowl are the most in league history.

• The following is a look at Pittsburgh's Super Bowl history:

Date	Opponent	Result	Site
1/12/75	Minnesota Vikings	W, 16-6	New Orleans, La.

• The Steelers won the AFC Central title a team-record six consecutive seasons from 1974-79. They also won four consecutive division titles from 1994-97.

• The Steelers won a team-record seven consecutive postseason games, including two Super Bowls (IX and X), from Dec. 22, 1974 through Dec. 19, 1976. They won six consecutive postseason games from Dec. 30, 1978 through Jan. 20, 1980, including victories in Super Bowls XIII and XIV.

• The Steelers have been shut out only once in the postseason, during the 1947 Eastern Division Playoff game, Dec. 21, 1947, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. The Steelers and Eagles finished that season with 8-4 records and tied for first place in the Eastern Division. In those days, there was only one NFL Championship Game, so the two Pennsylvania neighbors squared off for the right to face the Chicago Cardinals in the Championship Game. The Eagles won, 21-0, but lost in the Championship Game, 28-21, to the Cardinals, the same franchise the Steelers faced in Super Bowl XLIII.

• The Steelers record for fewest points allowed in a playoff game is five, during a 34-5 win in the 1978 AFC Championship Game versus the Houston Oilers at Three Rivers Stadium, on Jan. 7, 1979. The Steelers allowed a team-high 45 points during a 45-28 AFC Championship Game road loss to the Miami Dolphins on Jan. 6, 1985.

• Pittsburgh has faced 22 different teams in the postseason and has a winning record against 12 of those opponents. The Steelers have split their postseason contests with one team and have a losing record versus nine teams.

• The Steelers rank among the most successful teams in the NFL in the postseason. Pittsburgh is first with 20 division titles since 1970, is tied for first in total playoff berths since 1970, and is tied for third in consecutive playoff victories.

TEAM NOTES

Sustaining Success: Pittsburgh has made the playoffs seven times, including 2011, and won the AFC North five times since the divisional realignment in 2002. The Steelers won the AFC North Division for three times in last four years.

Although the Steelers finished with an identical 12-4 record the Baltimore Ravens won the division got a first round bye in the playoffs this season because the Ravens beat the Steelers twice.

The Steelers have won 20 division titles since the NFL merger in 1970, the most in the NFL during that time.

The following is a list of teams that have won the most division titles and qualified for the playoffs since 2002:

Team	Playoffs	Division Titles
Indianapolis	9	7
New England	8	8
Philadelphia	7	6
Pittsburgh*	7	5
Green Bay	7	5
San Diego	5	5

*Clinched playoff spot this season
Clinched division title this season

Toughest Division: The AFC North was the only division to have two teams with 12+ wins in 2011. It was also the only division that had three teams with at least nine victories. The AFC North finished first in the NFL for most wins as a division (37), and it had the highest winning percentage (.578) of any division in the NFL.

Defense was at the center of the division's success in 2011. The AFC North gave up the fewest points allowed as a division (1,123), and it was the only division where all four teams gave up less than 325 points. In addition, all four teams were in the top-10 in the NFL in total defense. The AFC North also boasted four top-10 pass defenses (Pittsburgh 1, Cleveland 2, Baltimore 4, Cincinnati 9) and three top-10 rush defenses in the NFL (Baltimore 2, Pittsburgh 8, Cincinnati 10).

Pittsburgh	1	271.8	99.8	171.9
Baltimore	3	288.9	92.6	196.3
Cincinnati	7	316.3	104.7	211.6
Cleveland	10	332.4	147.4	184.9

The AFC North had three teams (Baltimore, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh) in the 2011 postseason, marking the first time since realignment prior to the 2002 season that a division had three playoff teams. Since 2008, the AFC North has had at least two teams in the playoffs each year.

Award Time: With another successful season on the field, many Steelers' players were given individual honors. Pittsburgh had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, two selected to the Associated Press All-Pro Team, four named AFC Player of the Week and one selected AFC Player of the Month.

This was the 11th straight season and the 20th time in the last 23 seasons that the Steelers had multiple players selected to the Pro Bowl. Steelers S Troy Polamalu, C Maurkice Pouncey, WR Mike Wallace, QB Ben Roethlisberger and KR Antonio Brown were all selected to the 2012 AFC Pro Bowl. Polamalu, Pouncey and Wallace were named starters in the NFL's annual all-star game. Polamalu has been selected to the Pro Bowl squad seven times. For Roethlisberger and Pouncey it was their second selection and it was the first for Wallace and Brown. At least three Steelers have made the Pro Bowl every season dating back to 2001.

For the second consecutive season and the fourth time in his career, Polamalu was voted to the Associated Press All-Pro team. He was joined by Pouncey, who earned his first selection. Both were also named to the Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America All-NFL team for thier performance in the 2011 season.

During the 2011 regular season five Steelers earned AFC Player of the Week or Month honors:

• WR/KR Antonio Brown earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance in a Week 13 victory over Cincinnati. Brown registered his first career punt return for a touchdown, a 60-yarder in the second quarter to give the Steelers a 28-7 lead.

• RB Rashard Mendenhall was selected as the AFC Offensive Player of the Week after rushing 146 yards and one touchdown on 23 carries in a win versus Jacksonville in Week 6.

• QB Ben Roethlisberger earned two AFC Offensive Player of Week selections, first for throwing five touchdowns in a win over Tennessee in Week 5 and then for completing 36-of-50 passes for 365 yards and two touchdowns in a Week 8 victory over New England.

• S Troy Polamalu recorded two tackles, three pass breakups and one interception in a 13-9 victory at Cleveland to be named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 17.

• LB LaMarr Woodley was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for helping the Steelers go 4-1 in the month of October by registering a league-high 7.5 sacks, 25 tackles and one interception.

Defensive Dominance: The Steelers gave up 14.2 points per game in 2011 to lead the NFL. After only allowing 14.5 points per game in 2010, this marked only the third time in team history that the Steelers gave up less than 15.0 points per game in back-to-back seasons (1974-13.5; 1975-11.6; 1976-9.9).

In eight home games, the Steelers allowed a total of 80 points, giving up 10.0 points per game, the lowest in the NFL. It was also the sixth lowest in Steelers history:

Year	Points Per Game Allowed at Home
1946	9.0
1974	9.4
2001	9.8
1976	9.9
2011	10.0

Since Dick LeBeau has been defensive coordinator (2004-present) the Steelers have allowed an average of 15.4 points per game at Heinz Field, ranking second in the NFL over that time span for points given up at home during the regular season (Baltimore, 14.8).

The Steelers have allowed the fewest points in the NFL since the beginning of the 2007 season. Pittsburgh has allowed just 1,266 points during that span.

The following is a list of the top four teams in the NFL who have allowed the fewest points since the start of the 2007 campaign:

Team	Points Allowed
Pittsburgh	1,275
Baltimore	1,425
New England	1,523
Green Bay	1,567

Defense! Defense! Defense!: Pittsburgh recorded two shutouts during the 2011 regular season (Week 2, 24-0 vs. Sea, Week 16, 27-0 vs. StL). It was the fifth time since 1960 that Pittsburgh recorded multiple shutouts in a season (2, in 2007, 2 in 2000, 5 in 1976, 2 in 1974).

The Steelers were one of four teams to record a shutout in 2011 (Buf, KC, SF) and the only team with two shutouts.

It marked the fourth and fifth shutouts during the Mike Tomlin era. The Steelers now have 29 shutouts since 1960, which is the second most in the NFL during that time span:

Team	Shutouts
Chicago	30
Pittsburgh	29
San Francisco	26
Miami	25
New England	24

Tough In The Air: The 2011 season saw an unprecendented number of 300-yard passing games throughout the NFL. The Steelers number one-ranked pass defense held nine teams under 175 net passing yards, winning eight of those games. Pittsburgh only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards this season, tied with Tennessee for first in the NFL in 2011.

In seven of the final nine regular season games the Steelers held their opponents to 190 net passing yards or less (NE, @ Cin, @ KC, Cin, @ SF, vs. StL, @ Cle).

In Week 16, Pittsburgh held the Rams to 68 net passing yards and in Week 5, the Steelers' limited the Jacksonville offense to 76 net passing yards. It was the first time since 1992 (4) that Pittsburgh limited at least two teams to under 80 net passing yards during the regular season. Since 1970, it was the ninth time the Steelers defense held opponents under 80 net passing yards multiple times in one regular season (1992-4; 1979-3; 1978-2; 1977-4; 1976-4;1975-3; 1974-7; 1973-6; 1972-2).

Pittsburgh only gave up 10 net passing hards in the first two quarters against Jacksonville, which was the fifth-fewest net passing yards allowed by Pittsburgh's defense in the first half, dating back to 1991.

Under Head Coach Mike Tomlin (2007-present) the Steelers have given up a league-low 187.0 net passing yards per game during the regular season:

Team	Net Passing Yards/Game (2007-Present)
Pittsburgh	187.0
New York Jets	197.4
Tampa Bay	200.9
Indianapolis	203.0

Since the start of the 2007 season, Pittburgh's defense has allowed only 86 passing touchdowns, the fewest in the NFL over that time span.

Road Warriors: The Steelers have had great success playing away from Heinz Field over the last decade. Dating back to the start of 2010 season, the Steelers have won 12 of their past 16 road games, including winning four of their last five.

Since the beginning of the 2000 season, the Steelers own the fourth-best road winning percentage in the NFL. The following is a list of the top road winning percentages since 2000:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
New England	63	33	0	.656
Philadelphia	62	33	1	.651
Indianapolis	59	37	0	.615
Pittsburgh	58	38	0	.604
New Orleans	56	40	0	.583
New York Giants	55	41	0	.573

Holiday Cheer: In Week 17, the Steelers played a regular season game on New Year's Day for the second time in franchise history, beating the Cleveland Browns 13-9. The only other time was in 2005 and they beat Detroit 35-21 in Pittsburgh. The 2005 victory gave the Steelers a berth in the playoffs and they went on to win Super Bowl XL.

Overall, in regular season games played in the month of January, Pittsburgh is 8-1. Eight regular-season wins in the month of January is the most by any NFL team.

With a victory over St. Louis (Week 16) in 2011, the Steelers improved to 4-3 all-time in regular season games played on Christmas Eve. It was the Steelers' first game played on Christmas Eve since 2006, when they lost to Baltimore, 31-7, at home. The previous season Pittsburgh won, 41-0, at Cleveland on Christmas Eve.

Controlling The NFC: The Steelers have won 26 of their past 32 regular-season games versus teams in the NFC, dating back to 2003, including winning three of four this season.

The Steelers are 100-59-1 all-time against the NFC, including 57-19-1 at home. Pittsburgh has won eight of its last 10 games against NFC opponents.

The Steelers have seven consecutive home victories versus NFC teams. Pittsburgh last lost to an NFC team at Heinz Field in 2008 (21-14, vs. New York Giants). Prior to losing to the Giants, Pittsburgh had won eight straight games versus NFC teams at home. The Steelers are 6-2 versus the NFC in the Super Bowl.

If You Build It, They Will Come: In 2011, Pittsburgh registered a total attendance of 504,279, marking the fourth consective season that over 503,000 fans attended games at Heinz Field. Since Heinz Field opened in 2001, Pittsburgh has recorded over 503,000 fans six times.

In the 2010 AFC Championship victory over the N.Y. Jets, the Steelers broke the single-game record. The attendance of 66,662 surpassed the old mark of 65,597 set October 25, 2009, during a game versus the Minnnesota Vikings.

The previous regular-season record was 65,392, which was set on November 16, 2009 versus Cincinnati.

Pittsburgh set the team home attendance record in 2009 by averaging 63,458 (507,882 total). The Steelers need an attendance of at least 63,685 this Saturday versus the Rams to set a new record

Pittsburgh has sold out 308 straight games at home, dating back to Nov. 5, 1972 versus Cincinnati.

Year	Total Attendance	Avg.

Heinz Field Advantage: The Steelers own the best home record in the NFL with a 234-89-1 record (.724) since 1970. Pittsburgh is 65-22-1 (.744) at home since Heinz Field opened in 2001, including a 7-1 record in 2011. The 2011 season marked the first time Pittsburgh finished with a 7-1 record at home since 2007. It was the 12th time since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 that the Steelers won at least seven regular-season games at home, including the fourth time at Heinz Field (2001, '04, '07).

In five seasons under Head Coach Mike Tomlin the Steelers have won at least five games at home each season. The last time Pittsburgh did not win at least five home games in a season was 2003. Since 2004, Pittsburgh and New England are the only teams in the league to register at least five wins at home during each regular season.

Pittsburgh finished the 2004 regular season with an undefeated (8-0) home record for only the third time in team history and for the first time in 25 years.

The Steelers finished the 1979 regular season with an undefeated home record (8-0) and eventually won Super Bowl XIV. The Steelers were also undefeated at home (7-0) in 1972.

Year	Record
2004	8-0
2005	5-3
2006	5-3
2007	7-1
2008	6-2
2009	6-2
2010	5-3
2011	7-1

Primetime Team: The Steelers played a total of five games in primetime in 2011 and finished 3-2, playing three times on Sunday night (2-1), once on Thursday night (1-0) and once on Monday night (0-1). Only five other teams played five primetime games this season (Bal, NO, NYG, NYJ, Phi) and only one played six primetime games (Dal).

Ground Success: In six of the final seven regular-season games, the Steelers registered at least 28 carries and over 100 yards rushing in each (161 on 36 at Cleveland / 169 on 28 vs. St. Louis / 147 on 28 vs. Cleveland / 136 on 33 vs. Cincinnati / 108 on 28 carries at Kansas City / 105 yards on 30 carries at Cincinnati). The Steelers recorded at least 28 carries in 11 games in 2011, winning all 11.

In 10 of the final 12 games of the 2011 regular season, Pittsburgh outrushed its opponent. In Weeks 13, 14, 16 and 17 the Steelers totaled 136, 147, 169 and 161 rushing yards, their third, fourth, fifth and sixth highest rushing totals of the season.

In Weeks 5 and 6, the Steelers recorded 174 and 185 rushing yards for their two highest rushing totals. Overall, Pittsburgh registered four games with at least 160 net rushing yards in 2011, the most since recording seven during the 2007 regular season.

The Steelers achieved success on the ground by using a number of running backs this season. Four different Steelers have over 120 rushing yards and two have eclipsed 470 yards (RB Rashard Mendenhall, 928/RB Isaac Redman, 479). All the backs have combined to total 1,903 rushing yards on 434 carries, averaging 4.4 yards per carry. It was the third consecutive season that Pittsburgh averaged over 4.0 yards per rush (2010-4.1, 2009-4.2).

Over the final seven regular-season games, Pittsburgh's defense recorded nine interceptions by six different players (Lawrence Timmons and William Gay at Cincinnati, Ike Taylor, Ryan Mundy and Keenan Lewis at Kansas City, Taylor vs. Cincinnati, Gay and Troy Polamalu vs. Cleveland and Polamalu at Cleveland).

The Steelers allowed only one quarterback to throw for 300 yards and held 11 under 200 yards in 2011. The only quarterback to throw for 300 yards on the Steelers during the 2011 regular season was Joe Flacco and he attempted 47 passes, completing 28 to get to 300 yards in Week 9.

The Steelers limited Tom Brady to 198 passing yards, and he averaged 327.2 yards per game this season. It was the only time Brady was held under 200 yards in 2011.

Turning Up the Heat: Pittsburgh registered 35 sacks in 2011. The Steelers recorded 28 of the 35 sacks at Heinz Field to tie for second in the NFL for sacks at home (Baltimore, 33; Minnesota, 28). Pittsburgh's 28 sacks at home during the 2011 regular season ranked as the second most (36 in 1996) by a Steelers' team since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Due to injuries the Steelers had to play without their primary sack specialists LB LaMarr Woodley (six games missed) and LB James Harrison (five games missed) for a good portion of the season. While both players each recorded nine sacks in 2011, 10 other Steelers also contributed to putting pressure on the quarterback: DE Brett Keisel-3, LB Jason Worilds-3, LB Lawrence Timmons-2, LB James Farrior-2, LB Larry Foote-1.5, DE Ziggy Hood-1.5, S Troy Polomalu-1, S Ryan Clark-1, NT Steve McClendon-1 and DE Cameron Heyward-1.

The Steelers recorded five sacks in Week 2 versus Seattle, tying for the third highest single-game total of the Mike Tomlin era and the most since registering six versus Oakland on 11/21/10.

On the road the Steelers recorded sacks at key times. Against Arizona in Week 7 Woodley recorded a sack on third-and-seven at the PIT 45-yard line that forced a punt. Woodley also forced Cardinals QB Kevin Kolb into an intentionally grounding penalty in the end zone that resulted in a safety.

In Week 3 versus Indianapolis, Harrison forced a fumble on a sack of Curtis Painter that Polamalu returned 16 yards for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 20-13 lead in the fourth quarter.

Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks six times and the entire NFL three times, including in 2010. Since 2004, the Steelers have the most sacks in the NFL with 344, 10 more then the second place team (New York Giants, 334).

Sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, however, a record of "passers tackled" was kept prior to that time. Following are the Steelers' single-season sack totals dating back to 1970:

Safety First: In Weeks 7 and 8, the Steelers defense registered two safeties: in Week 7 LB LaMarr Woodley forced QB Kevin Kolb into an intentional grounding penalty in the end zone and in Week 8 DE Brett Keisel stripped the ball from QB Tom Brady in the closing seconds and it rolled out of the end zone.

Dating back to 1960, this was the first time that the Steelers registered safeties in back-to-back weeks. The last team in the NFL to register safeties in back-to-back games was the New York Giants in 2008. It is only the third time since 1960 that Pittsburgh registered two safeties in one season (1962, 1980).

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records since the merger in 1970:

	Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	Pittsburgh Steelers	396	250	2	.613
2.	Miami Dolphins	385	261	2	.596
3.	Dallas Cowboys	381	267	0	.588

Among The Best: The Steelers have 589 career wins (including postseason), which is the fourth-most in NFL history.

The following is a listing of the top five teams in the NFL for career wins (including postseason, updated through 1/17/12):

	Team	Wins

2.	Green Bay Packers	703
3.	New York Giants	667
4.	Pittsburgh Steelers	589
5.	Washington Redskins	576

Additionally, Pittsburgh owns the third-best record in the NFL since the free-agency era (since 1993) with a 193-110-1 (.637) record.

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records in the free agency era (since 1993):

2.	Green Bay Packers	194	110	0	.638
3.	Pittsburgh Steelers	193	110	1	.637

Regular-Season Success: Pittsburgh owns the third-best regular-season record in the NFL over the past 10-plus seasons. The Steelers have averaged over 10 wins per year and have earned seven playoff berths, six division titles and two Super Bowl victories in that time period.

Team	W	L	T	Pct.	Playoff Berths
New England	139	53	0	.724	9
Pittsburgh	127	64	1	.664	8

In the Red Zone: In the final 10 games of the regular season, the Steelers were 36-for-42 in the red zone, coming away with 23 touchdowns and 13 field goals. In Week 16 versus St. Louis, Pittsburgh was 4-for-4 in the red zone with three touchdowns while in Week 13 the Steelers were 4-for-4 against Cincinnati, scoring a touchdown each time. In two games against the Bengals this season, the Steelers scored seven touchdowns and one field goal on eight red zone opportunities.

Pittsburgh was 5-for-5 in both Week 8 versus New England and in Week 5 against Tennessee.

Following is a look at how the Steelers offense has performed in the red zone this season:

Red Zone Defense: Over the final 11 games of the 2011 regular season, the Steelers allowed their opponents to enter the red zone a total of just 17 times.

Twice this season, Week 12 at Kansas City where they gave up nine points and in a Week 2 shutout of Seattle, the Steelers defense didn't allow either offense to reach the red zone and only one Seattle possession ended across mid-field. In Weeks 16 and 17, St. Louis and Cleveland only made it to the red zone once each and came away with a combined three points.

COACHING NOTES

Tomlin owns an impressive 12-3 record against divisional foes at Heinz Field.

Among The Best: Since Mike Tomlin was named head coach of the Steelers in 2007, Pittsburgh has compiled the second-most wins in the NFL during that time span (53). The following is the top three regular-season records in the NFL since 2007:

Team	Record	Playoff App.	Super Bowl App.
NE	64-16	4	1
PIT	55-25	4	2
GB	55-25	4	1

Our House: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a 31-9 regular-season record at Heinz Field in his five seasons in Pittsburgh.

For the second time in the Tomlin era, the Steelers finished 7-1 at home in 2011 (2007). For the third time in Tomlin's five seasons, the Steelers started 4-0 at home this season. Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to at least five home wins in each of his five seasons as head coach.

Leading The Way: Head Coach Mike Tomlin has the highest regular-season winning percentage (.688) amongst active NFL head coaches who have coached a minimum of 70 games:

Name	W	L	T	Win Pct.
Mike McCarthy (GB 2006-11)	63	33	0	.656
Sean Payton (NO 2006-11)	62	34	0	.646
Bill Belichick (Cle 1991-95, NE 2000-11)	175	97	0	.643
Andy Reid (Phi 1999-11)	126	81	1	.609

Tomlin Versus the NFC: During his career, Head Coach Mike Tomlin regular-season record against the NFC is 14-6, including 3-1 in 2011.

The Steelers .700 regular-season winning percentage against the NFC since 2007 is tied for the fourth best in the NFL.

Team	W	L	Pct.
New England	18	2	.900
Tennessee	16	4	.800
Green Bay	42	17	.712
Pittsburgh	14	6	.700
Baltimore	14	6	.700

Under Tomlin, the Steelers are 7-2, including the postseason, against the NFC West. Pittsburgh's only losses came on the road in Arizona (2007) and San Francisco (2011).

Over the past three regular seasons the Steelers are 9-3 against the NFC.

Primetime Specialist: This season the Steelers played five primetime games (3-2). Head Coach Mike Tomlin is 18-7 overall in primetime games, including an 9-4 record on the road. He is 6-1 on Monday Night Football, 7-5 on Sunday Night Football and 5-1 on Thursday Night Football.

Tomlin joined only Bill Cowher (Steelers), Tom Flores (Raiders), Steve Mariucci (49ers), George Siefert (49ers) and Don Shula (Colts, Dolphins) as coaches to win their first six Monday Night Football games.

10 Wins: Head Coach Mike Tomlin led the Steelers to at least 10 wins for the second consecutive season in 2011 and for the fourth time in five years (2007, '08, '10).

Tomlin became only the sixth head coach to win at least nine games in each of his first five seasons since the NFL merger in 1970.

Bye Week: Since 2007, the Steelers are 4-1 in games following the bye week under Head Coach Mike Tomlin. The only time Pittsburgh lost after the bye was in 2007, losing 31-28 at Denver. The Steelers have also performed well going into the bye week since Tomlin was named head coach, going 4-1 in those contests, including a 24-17 victory in Week 10 at Cincinnati this season.

Tomlin has entered the bye week with a winning percentage of at least .700 in each of his five seasons.

Strong Out Of The Gate: Head Coach Mike Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to a 12-4 record for the third time in his five years as head coach of the Steeleres (2010, 08). It also was the second time in team history that the Steelers recorded back-to-back regular seasons with at least 12 wins (1978, 14-2 and 1979, 12-4).

Under Tomlin, Pittsburgh has recorded a 9-3 record in the first 12 games four times in the last five seasons. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers' history to lead his team to at least nine wins through the first 12 games in four of his first five seasons.

The Steelers started 6-2 for the fifth consecutive season under Tomlin in 2011. He became the only coach in Steelers history and in the NFL (since 1978) to open each of his first five seasons with at least six wins through the first eight games.

This season marked the 14th time since 1978 that Pittsburgh has opened the season with at least six wins in their first eight games. In 13 of those cases the Steelers went on to make the playoffs.

Pittsburgh won their first four home games for the third time in five seasons under Tomlin.

In Week 2, Pittsburgh won its fifth straight home opener under Tomlin. He is the only Steelers head coach to win his first five home openers.

Few And Far Between: Head Coach Mike Tomlin became only the second coach in Steelers' history to post winning records in each of his first five seasons. Tomlin is the only coach in team history to win division titles in each of his first two seasons (2007-08).

In 2007, Tomlin became the second head coach in team history to post a winning record in his first season with a mark of 10-6.

High Honor Roll: Defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August of 2010. LeBeau had an outstanding NFL career, finishing with 62 career interceptions (seventh all-time) and 171 consecutive starts (then-NFL record for a cornerback) with the Detroit Lions.

LeBeau was also inducted into the Ohio State University Hall of Fame in 2009. He played at Ohio State as a cornerback and halfback and was a member of the 1957 national championship team.

Defensive Mastermind: The Steelers defense has been led by defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau since 2004. During that time span it has been regarded as one of the top defenses in the NFL, helping to lead the Steelers to three Super Bowls. This season LeBeau's defense ranked first in yards per game and net passing yards per game. Below is how the LeBeau's defenses rank since the start of the 2004 season:

INDIVIDUAL OFFENSIVE NOTES

Pro Bowl Bound: QB Ben Roethlisberger was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after a 2011 regular season that saw him register the second most passing yards in franchise history and the second most completions, while playing in only 15 games.

Roethlisberger was twice named AFC Offensive Player of the Week in 2011 and broke the team's all-time record for completions in Week 14 versus Cincinnati.

Climbing The Ranks: QB Ben Roethlisberger continues to populate the top of the Steelers' franchise records.

Roethlisberger had 4,077 passing yards in 15 games played in 2011, passing Terry Bradshaw (3,724 in 1979) for the second most passing yards during a regular season in franchise history. Roethlisberger already owns the number one mark with 4,328 yards in 2009.

Rk.	Player	Year	Passing Yards
1.	Ben Roethlisberger	2009	4,328
2.	Ben Roethlisberger	2011	4,077
3.	Terry Bradshaw	1979	3,724
4.	Ben Roethlisberger	2006	3,513

With 324 completions in 2011, Roethlisberger passed Tommy Maddox (298 in 2003) for the second-highest single season total in franchise history behind his own mark of 337 completions in 2009.

Rk.	Player	Year	Completions

Facing The NFC: With a career record of 79-33 as a starter, QB Ben Roethlisberger has posted gaudy numbers no matter the opposition.

Throughout his career, Roethlisberger has feasted on competition from the NFC. In 28 career regular-season games against NFC opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a 21-7 record while completing 457-of-742 passes (61.6 pct.) for 6,230 yards with 37 touchdowns and 20 interceptions.

Roethlisberger's statistics against the NFC are equally impressive in games at Heinz Field. In 14 career games against NFC opponents at home, Roethlisberger has a 13-1 mark while completing 217-of-365 passes (59.5 pct.) for 3,139 yards with 18 touchdowns and eight interceptions for a passer rating of 94.8.

Roethlisberger won his first seven starts against NFC teams.

Quick Start: QB Ben Roethlisberger completed 177-of-276 pass attempts for 2,139 yards, 14 touchdowns and six interceptions in first halfs in 2011. Roethlisberger totaled over 100 yards passing in 13-of-15 first halfs including 231 yards passing twice (at Ind, vs. NE).

In Week 7 versus Arizona, he registered a first-half passer rating of 140.4 by completing 9-of-16 passes for 199 yards and two touchdowns. Roethlisberger followed that up by completing a first half career-high 23-of-32 passes for 231 yards, the fifth highest passing yardage total of his career in the first half, with two touchdowns and one interception.

In Week 14, Roethlisberger led the Steelers to an opening drive touchdown against Cleveland, marking the sixth time in the last nine games that Pittsburgh scored a touchdown on their opening possession. Roethlisberger also recorded a 151.0 passer rating in the first half, the eighth time in his career he registered a passer rating of 150+ in the first half.

Over the last nine games he played in during the 2011 regular season, Roethlisberger led the Steelers offense to points on 25-of-52 first-half possesions (16 TDs, nine FGs). In Week 13 versus the Bengals, Pittsburgh scored on three consecutive offensive possessions in the second quarter. Three weeks earlier at Cincinnati, Roethlisberger led the Steelers to touchdowns on their first two possessions for the third time in 2011 (vs. Ten, vs. Jac).

In Week 5 against Tennessee, Roethlisberger recorded three touchdown passes in the first half. It marked the fourth time in his career he totaled at least four touchdown passes in the first half and was only the sixth time since 1991 that a Steelers quarterback achieved the feat.

Roethlisberger completed 7-of-11 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown for a 137.5 passer rating in the first quarter against the Colts in Week 3. The 171 yards were the most yards he has thrown for in the first quarter during his career. Dating back to 1991, it was the highest first-quarter passing total of any Steelers' quarterback.

Finding The End Zone: QB Ben Roethlistberger recorded the 20th game of his career with at least three touchdown passes in Week 7 at Arizona. On the season, Roethlisberger had 21 touchdown passes in 15 games played, marking the third time in his career he totaled at least 20 passing touchdowns (26 in 2009 / 32 in 2007).

Roethlisberger tied a career high with five touchdown passes in Week 5 against Tennessee. It was the fourth time in his career he threw at least four touchdown passes in one game and only the second time he totaled five (11/5/07 at Baltimore). Roethlisberger is the only Steelers quarterback to throw for a franchise-best five touchdowns in a single game twice during the regular season:

Controlling The North: With a victory vs. Cleveland in Week 17, QB Ben Roethlisberger improved to 33-9 (.786) as a starter against AFC North opponents during his career. He finished a perfect 5-0 in 2010 against divisional foes and was 4-2 in 2011.

Roethlisberger had won 12 straight games against divisional foes as the starter prior to the Week 3 setback at Cincinnati in 2009, which was the longest streak in the NFL and the longest since Peyton Manning won 12 straight from 2004-06.

In his 42 career games versus division opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a perfect passer rating once (11/5/07 vs. Baltimore) and has recorded a passer rating of over 100.0 a total of 16 times.

Statistic	42 games vs. AFC North (as a starter)

Home Cooking: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 44-13 (.772) mark in the regular season in his career at Heinz Field, including winning his first eight starts as a rookie in 2004. Roethlisberger was 6-1 at home in 2011.

At Heinz Field, Roethlisberger has completed 63.3 percent of his passes for 13,695 with 86 touchdowns and 46 interceptions for a passer rating of 95.0. He has thrown for more than 300 yards 11 times and has 26 multi-touchdown games at home (21-5 record in such games), including a franchise and career high (tied) five touchdowns versus the Titans in Week 5 (2011).

Roethlisberger has twice posted a perfect passer rating at home, including most recently in Week 9 of 2007 against Baltimore. He also had a perfect passer rating (158.3) against Tennessee in the 2005 season opener and has posted at least a 125.0 passer rating eight times.

The Steelers have scored at least 20 points in 46 of the 57 games at home with Roethlisberger as the starter.

300-Yard Plateau: QB Ben Roethlisberger registered 330 yards passing in Week 15 at San Francisco, marking the 20th 300+ yard passing game of his career. It was also Roethlisberger's fifth of the season, tying his career-high for a single season. Midway through the season, he registered over 300 yards passing in a franchise-best three consecutive games (Weeks 7-9).

Game	Cmp	Att	Yds	TD	INT	Rtg
at Ari (10/23)	26	39	361	3	0	121.8
vs. NE (10/30)	36	50	365	2	1	97.5
vs. Bal (11/6)	20	37	330	1	1	82.0

In Weeks 7 and 8 Roethlisberger became the first Steelers' quarterback to register at least 360 passing yards in back-to-back games (361, 365). For his career, Roethlisberger has thrown for at least 360 yards, a franchise best, 10 times.

The Steelers have won six of the last nine games where Roethlisberger has thrown for 300 yards.

Title Man: QB Ben Roethlisberger has led the Steelers to the AFC Championship Game four times in his first eight seasons. He is one of only two active NFL quarterbacks to win multiple Super Bowl titles (Tom Brady).

Roethlisberger joined Roger Staubach, Bernie Kosar, Tom Brady and Donovan McNabb as the only quarterbacks to lead their teams to the conference title game at least three times in their first five seasons as the starting quarterback.

Starting In Style: In his career, QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 80-33 (.708) record as a starting quarterback in the regular season. That mark is the second-best record in the NFL among all active quarterbacks (min. 50 starts).

Roethlisberger registered his 80th career win in his 113th career start, becoming the fourth quarterback who began their career in the Super Bowl era to reach 80 wins in 113 or fewer starts: Tom Brady (104), Roger Staubach (105) and Ken Stabler (112).

His 63-27 record after his first 90 starts in the NFL ranks third (tied) in league history for the best record in such starts. Only Brady (67-23) and Stabler (66-23-1) had better records in their first 90 starts in the NFL. Roethlisberger's record is tied with Jim McMahon.

The following is a look at the top five starting records among active quarterbacks in the NFL (min. 50 starts):

Name	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Tom Brady, Patriots	123	37	0	.767
2. Ben Roethlisberger, Steelers	80	33	0	.708

Passing Perfection: QB Ben Roethlisberger has achieved a number of outstanding single-season accomplishments in his eight-year career, including achieving a feat three times that is rarely done in the NFL.

Roethlisberger, who set the team's single-season mark for passer rating (104.1) in 2007, has had a perfect passer rating (158.3) three times in his career, tying him with QB Peyton Manning for the most in NFL history (minimum 10 attempts).

Roethlisberger's 44 career 100-plus passer rating games in the regular season rank first in team history, surpassing Terry Bradshaw, who had 31 such games since the passer rating rule was implemented in 1973.

Deadly Combination: In 2011, QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Mike Wallace connected for 1,193 yards on 72 receptions with eight touchdowns, including two scores in Week 13 versus Cincinnati.

The two have combined for 11 touchdowns of at least 40 yards since the start of 2009, which ranks first in team history and is the second-most amongst active players in the NFL (12, Peyton Manning and Reggie Wayne).

In 2011, Roethlisberger and Wallace recorded three touchdowns of at least 40 yards. In Week 7 at Arizona, Roethlisberger and Wallace connected on a 95-yard touchdown, the longest pass play and second-longest offensive play from scrimmage in Steelers history. In Week 5 versus Tennessee, Roethlisberger and Wallace connected on a 40-yard touchdown pass. In Week 3 at Indianapolis the two recorded an 81-yard touchdown, marking the fourth-longest pass of Roethlisberger's career and the second longest reception for Wallace. The following is a list of the top QB-WR combos in terms of touchdowns of 40 yards in club history:

Best of the Batch: QB Charlie Batch filled in for an injured Ben Roethlisberger in Week 15 vs. St. Louis and led the Steelers to a 27-0 win while throwing for 208 yards on 15-of-22 passing (68.1). It was the first time he threw for over 200 yards since 12/30/07, at Baltimore (218).

Batch has a 24-29 record as a starting quarterback, including a 5-2 record in his nine seasons with Pittsburgh. He started two games in 2010 for the Steelers (Weeks 3-4) and went 1-1 in those two starts.

In his seven career starts with the Steelers, Batch is 92-of-151 (60.9 pct.) for 1,177 yards with eight touchdowns and seven interceptions (83.7 passer rating).

Moving Up: WR Hines Ward reached 12,083 career receiving yards, becoming the 19th player in NFL history to reach 12,000 receiving yards. The 17 players ahead of Ward on the NFL career receiving yards list, only Jerry Rice and Art Monk have multiple Super Bowl rings, and both are Hall of Famers.

Another Milestone: WR Hines Ward five receptions for 24 yards in Week 17 at Cleveland to give him 1,000 career receptions. He become the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 career receptions and the first in Steelers' history. Ward joined Hall of Famer Jerry Rice as the only two players to reach 1,000 career receptions and win multiple Super Bowls.

Ward is the team's all-time leader in receiving yards (12,083), receptions (1,000) and receiving touchdowns (85).

Ward is the only wide receiver in Steelers history to be voted to four Pro Bowls. Ward's 1,167 receiving yards in 2009 made him the first Steelers receiver to reach 1,000 yards six times during his career with the team. No other Steeler has more than three.

Additionally, Ward has 29 career 100-yard receiving games, which is first on the team's all-time list.

In 2002, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history to catch 100 passes (112) in a season. His 12 touchdown receptions in 2002 tied him with Louis Lipps (1985) and Buddy Dial (1961) for the highest single-season total in team history.

Ward was selected to the 2002-05 AFC Pro Bowl squads.

Ward Sticking Around: WR Hines Ward is in his 14th year in the league and currently ranks first among active wide receivers (7th in NFL history) with 1,000 career receptions. The following is a list the top three active wide receivers with the most career receptions:

Active Player	Career Receptions
Hines Ward	1,000
Derrick Mason	943
Reggie Wayne	862

12,000+ In One Place: WR Hines Ward surpassed 12,000 receiving yards for his career, becoming the 19th player in NFL history to reach the mark.

Ward became the third player in NFL history to reach 12,000 receiving yards while playing for one team during their entire career (Marvin Harrison, Ind. and Steve Largent, Sea.). Ward is the first player in Steelers' history to reach 12,000 career receiving yards.

The following is a list of the players who have played their entire career with one team and posted more than 10,000 receiving yards:

Player (Team)	Total Receiving Yds.
Marvin Harrison (Colts)	14,580
Steve Largent (Seahawks)	13,089
Hines Ward (Steelers)	12,083
Michael Irvin (Cowboys)	11,904
Rod Smith (Broncos)	11,389

Hines Hanging Around: WR Hines Ward has been with the Steelers since he was drafted in the third round in the 1998 NFL Draft. The 2011 season marked Ward's 14th season with the Steelers, which ties for the second longest tenure in team history behind Mike Webster, who played in Pittsburgh for 15 years (1974-88). Ward owns the longest tenure among wide receivers with their current team.

The following is a list of the longest-tenured wideouts with their current team:

Player	Team	First Year With Team
Hines Ward	Steelers	1998
Donald Driver	Packers	1999

Red-Zone Receiver: WR Hines Ward has been a major target for Pittsburgh quarterbacks in the red zone. In Week 5, he recorded two touchdown receptions in the red zone against Tennessee.

Since 2002, Ward is second in the NFL with 50 red-zone receiving touchdowns. Ward had four red-zone touchdowns in 2010.

	Player (Team)	# of Red-Zone TDs
1.	Antonio Gates (Chargers)	57
2.	Hines Ward (Steelers)	50
3.	Larry Fitzgerald (Cardinals)	49

Ward On The Run: WR Hines Ward's versatility makes him a threat to run the football as well as catch a pass.

Ward has 428 career rushing yards to mark the most by a Steelers wide receiver in team history.

Ward scored his first (and only) career rushing touchdown in 2004 against Philadelphia.

Run That Rock, 34: RB Rashard Mendenhall enjoyed a very solid second-half of the 2011 season. Since the beginning of November, Mendenhall had 507 rushing yards and six rushing touchdowns.

In Week 15 vs. St. Louis, Mendenhall rushed for 116 yards and one touchdown. He now has 29 career rushing touchdowns in the regular season, surpassing Pro Football Hall of Famer Franco Harris for the most rushing touchdowns in the first four seasons of a career in Steelers' history.

Mendenhall's game versus the Rams also marked the third time in 2011 that he averaged better than five yards per carry. In Week 10 Mendenhall averaged 5.4 yards on 13 carries (70 yards) against New England. In Week 6 versus Jacksonville, Mendenhall averaged of 6.3 yards per carry.

Mendenhall went over 100 rushing yards in the first half against the Jaguars for the first time in his career (113), including a career long run of 68 yards. It was the second-most rushing yards by a Steeler in the first half, dating back to 1991. Mendenhall finished with 146 yards on 23 carries, the fourth most rushing yards of his career (151, 155, 165).

In addition to his success running the football, Mendenhall has held his own catching the football. He recorded nine receptions for 106 yards since the beginning of November, including a career long 35-yarder in Week 16 versus Rams.

Wallace Continues To Thrive: WR Mike Wallace followed up his breakout 2010 season with a stellar 2011, recording a career high 72 receptions for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns. He was named a starter for his first career Pro Bowl, becoming the first Steelers wide receiver to start in the Pro Bowl since 1985 when John Stallworth was named a starter.

Wallace joined WR Antonio Brown (1,108 yards) as the third Steeler duo since 1960 to each register at least 1,100+ receiving yards in the same season (2002: Hines Ward, 1,329 / Plaxico Burress, 1,325 and 2009: Ward, 1,167 / Santonio Holmes, 1,248).

In 2010, Wallace posted his first career 1,000-yard season as he led all Steelers with 60 receptions, 1,257 receiving yards and 10 receiving touchdowns.

100 Is the Number: In Week 7 at Arizona, WR Mike Wallace gained 118 yards on three receptions, including a 95-yard touchdown, the longest reception and second longest offensive play from scrimmage in team history. It was Wallace's fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season.

Wallace posted 100 yards receiving in each of the first three games in 2011, setting a franchise-best streak of six consecutvie games with at least 100 yards receiving.

Wallace's six consecutive games with 100+ yards receiving tied the second longest streak in NFL history:

Player	Team	Year	100-yard Receiving Games In a Row
Charley Hannigan	Hou	1961	7
Michael Irvin	Dal	1995	7
Mike Wallace	Pit	2010-11	6
Raymond Berry	Bal	1960	6
Bill Groman	Hou	1961	6
Pat Studstill	Det	1966	6
Isaac Bruce	StL	1995	6

Wallace now has 12 career 100-yard receiving games during the regular season, passing Plaxico Burress (11) for the fourth-most in Steelers' history:

Rk.	Player	Years	Career 100-yard Receiving Games
1.	Hines Ward	1998-Present	29
2.	John Stallworth	1974-87	25
3.	Louis Lipps	1984-91	16
4.	Mike Wallace	2009-Present	12

In Week 3 at Indianapolis, Wallace set a career high with 144 yards on five receptions, including an 81-yard touchdown. Dating back to 1991, Wallace's 129 yards on three receptions were the most by a Steelers' receiver in the first quarter.

Breakout Campaign: WR Mike Wallace had a personal-best 10 receiving touchdowns in 2010. In 2011, Wallace recorded eight touchdowns.

Wallace led the NFL with seven 100-yard receiving games in 2010, tying the team's regular-season record set by John Stallworth in 1984. In 2011, Wallace had four 100-yard receiving games.

Player	Year	100-yard receiving games (single season)
Mike Wallace	2010	7
John Stallworth	1984	7
Yancey Thigpen	1997	6
Hines Ward	2009	5
Louis Lipps	1989	5

Going Deep: WR Mike Wallace continued to be a deep threat in 2011, averaging 16.6 yards per catch. During the 2011 regular season, Wallace had seven receptions of at least 40 yards, including a 81-yard touchdown at Indianapolis in Week 3 and a 95-yard touchdown in Week 7 at Arizona, which ranks as the second longest offensive play from scrimmage and the longest pass play in Steelers' history.

Wallace registered a reception of at least 40 yards in six consecutive games in 2011 (Games 2-7), the longest such streak in the NFL since Isaac Bruce in 2000 (Games 2-7).

Wallace has been a down field threat all of his career. In 2010 he averaged a conference-best 21.0 yards per catch (2nd in NFL), after leading the NFL in receiving average as a rookie in 2009.

Since entering the league in 2009, Wallace has averaged 18.7 yards per catch and has 40 receptions of 25+ yards, second most behind Eagles WR DeSean Jackson (42).

In 2011, Wallace had 12 receptions of at least 25 yards (26, 28t, 29, 40, 40t, 48, 53, 81t, 95t, 25t, 36, 46). He had 26 receptions for at least 20 yards in 2010, the most for Pittsburgh since Hall of Famer John Stallworth had 24 in 1984.

The following is a list of all of Wallace's receptions (21) of at least 40 yards (bolded are 2011 receptions):

Miller Time: TE Heath Miller has been a consistent performer for the Steelers throughout his career and that continued in 2011. Miller was third on the team with 51 receptions for 631 yards and two touchdowns, and he registered at least one reception in all 16 games. Miller has recorded at least one reception in every game he has played in, including postseason, dating back to 11/3/08 vs. Washington, a streak of 58 games.

Miller passed Elbie Nickel (329) for the franchise lead in receptions by a tight end and passed Lynn Swann for the fourth most in Steelers history.

Rk.	Player	Rec.	Yards	TDs
1.	Hines Ward (1998-Present)	991	12,027	85
2.	John Stallworth (1974-87)	537	8,723	63
3.	Louis Lipps (1984-91)	358	6,018	39
4.	Heath Miller (2005-Present)	337	3,864	31
5.	Lynn Swann (1974-82)	336	5,462	51
6.	Elbie Nickel (1947-57)	329	5,131	37

In Week 14 against Cleveland, Miller registered 82 yards on five receptions, incldluing a 39-yard reception, the fifth longest of his career.

Miller recorded one the best games of 2011 in Week 8 against New England, posting seven receptions for 85 yards. Miller got off to a fast start, registering four receptions on the first drive of the game to account for 55 of the Steelers 68 total yards on the touchdown drive. Miller tied a first half career-high with six receptions and set a first half career-high with 76 yards. He previously registered six receptions in the first half against San Diego on 10/4/09, totaling 58 yards. Dating back to 1991, Miller's six receptions tied Eric Green (6 for 118 yards, 9/22/91 vs. Philadelphia) for the most receptions by a Steelers' tight end in the first half.

Miller had two touchdowns in 2011, giving him 31 for his career and making him the eighth Steelers player to record at least 30 receiving touchdowns. He is second on the team's all-time list for touchdowns by a tight end (Nickel, 37). After registering a touchdown in the Week 7 victory over Arizona, Pittsburgh improved 22-6 when Miller finds the end zone.

Growing Up: WR Antonio Brown is a second-year player that continues to get better as each game goes by. In 2010, he showed flashes of his ability late in the season and throughout the postseason. In 2011 he is showing up on a more consistent basis on offense as well as special teams.

In 2011, Brown became the first player in NFL history with at least 1,000 receiving yards (1,108) and at least 1,000 return yards (1,062) in the same season.

With 2,211 all-purpose yards in 2011, Brown passed Barry Foster (2,034 in 1992) for the franchise single season record. He has elevated himself to consistent threat anytime he gets his hands on the ball, scoring as a receiver and returner.

As a receiver, Brown was second on the team with 69 receptions for 1,108 yards and two touchdowns, shattering his rookie totals of 167 yards on 16 receptions in nine games played in 2010.

Brown ranked third in the NFL in third down receiving with 28 receptions in 2011.

In 2011, Brown also set career single game highs in receiving yards: 151 on five receptions vs. Cleveland in Week 14, and receptions: nine for 67 yards versus New England in Week 8.

After not registering a 100-yard receiving game in the first 14 games of his career, Brown had three in the last eight games of the 2011 regular season (151 vs. Cleveland, 109 vs. Baltimore, 102 at Arizona).

Over the final five weeks of the regular season, Brown set new career-longs with a 45-yard reception versus Cincinnati in Week 13 and a 79-yard touchdown reception against Cleveland in Week 14.

Against Kansas City in Week 12, Brown recorded a team-high 81 yards on four receptions. In Week 10 at Cincinnati he made his first career start and recorded five receptions for a team-high 86 yards. Including four receptions for 74 yards on a drive that traveled 77 yards in 15 plays and resulted in a field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 17-10 lead late in the second quarter. During the drive Brown converted two consecutive third downs for the Steelers: a 3rd-and-19 with a 21-yard reception and a 3rd-and-7 with a 15-yard reception.

Center Of Attention: For the second consecutive season C Maurkice Pouncey was named to the Pro Bowl. This is his first selection as a starter.

Pouncey is the anchor of the Steelers offensive line. Last year, he was the first Steelers rookie offensive lineman to make the Pro Bowl since offensive tackle Frank Varrichione in 1956 and the first Steelers rookie since linebacker Kendrell Bell in 2002.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENSIVE NOTES

Man Of Troy: SS Troy Polamalu continued to make plays during the 2011 regular season as well as be a consistent force on the Steelers defense, earning his seventh Pro Bowl honor and sixth as a starter.

Polamalu finished the season tied for third on the team with 90 tackles, including leading the team with 10 tackles at Cincinnati in Week 10. It marked his 13th career game with at least 10 tackles and second this season (10, at Houston).

On 3rd-and-4 at the Pittsburgh 12-yard line in Week 16 versus St. Louis, Polamalu tackled RB Steven Jackson for a loss of three yards, forcing a field goal that was missed with 13:40 left in the fourth quarter.

Polamalu recorded the 29th interception of his career against the Browns in Week 17, passing Jack Lambert for the ninth-most in Steelers' history. It was his seventh career interception against Cleveland, the most he has had against any opponent. Polamalu's 29 career interceptions are the most of any active Steeler. The team is 24-3 when Polamalu has an interception.

In Week 3 at Indianapolis, Polamalu returned a fumble 16 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. In Week 2 he registered his first sack of 2011 and the ninth of his career versus Seattle.

Polamalu ranks fifth in Steelers' history among safeties in sacks. He is one shy of passing Chris Oldham (9.5) for fourth place in franchise history for the most sacks among safeties.

Since 2008, Polamalu is tied for second among NFL safeties in interceptions (19):

Player	Team	INT
Ed Reed	Baltimore	23
Troy Polamalu	Pittsburgh	19
Nick Collins	Green Bay	17
Michael Griffin	Tennessee	14

Tackling Machine: S Ryan Clark has teamed with perennial All-Pro Troy Polamalu to form one of the finest safety duos in the NFL. Since coming to the Steelers in 2006, Clark has started 79 of 80 regular-season games played, including all 16 for each of the past two seasons.

In 2011, Clark led Pittsburgh in tackles during the regular season with 100, becoming the first Steelers' safety to lead the team in tackles, dating back to 1970. It also marked the fourth consecutive season Clark recorded at least 100 tackles (122 in 2010, 110 in 2009, 113 in 2008). He also registered one sack this season, his first since 2007.

If There's a Will There's A Way: CB William Gay returned to the starting lineup in 2011 after serving as a nickel back for most of 2010. He was been an integral part of the Steelers number one ranked pass defense that held 10 teams to 170 net passing yards or less during the regular season. Gay tied for second on the team with 13 passes defensed this season.

Gay came up with key interceptions at key times during the regular season. In Week 14 vs. Cleveland he recorded an interception in the end zone with 3:11 left in the game and the Steelers only up by four points. His best game of the season came in Week 10 at Cincinnati. He was part of a secondary that held the Bengals to 170 net passing yards and contributed two game-altering plays in the fourth quarter. With the Bengals on the Pittsburgh 47-yard line with 12:22 remaining, Gay deflected a pass into the hands of LB Lawrence Timmons. Later, with 2:33 left in the game and Cincinnati driving to the Steelers' 25-yard line, Gay jumped a route to intercept an Andy Dalton pass, returning it 12 yards to the Pittsburgh 31-yard line. From there, Pittsburgh ran out the clock for the seven-point win.

With two interceptions during the regular season, Gay set a new career high after only recording one interception from 2007-10.

In two of the final six regular-season games, Taylor also contributed in the form of interceptions. In Weeks 13 and 14, Taylor registered interceptions in back-to-back regular season games for the first time in his career.

Pittsburgh had eight different players record interceptions during the regular season and Taylor is one of three (William Gay, Troy Polamalu) with two. He was one shy of his career-high of three set in 2007. Taylor also led the team with 20 passes defensed during the regular season, the second highest single-season total in his career (25 in 2005).

Since Taylor became a regular starter (2005-present), the Steelers have led the league in pass defense, allowing only 192.4 net passing yards per game. Since 2005 the Steelers have played 112 regular-season games, with Taylor playing in all of them and starting 91, and during that time the defense only allowed seven players to record double-digit receptions in a single game. Also, in those 112 games, Pittsburgh's defense has allowed only nine 300-yard passers, including only one in 2011.

Harrison Back In Charge: LB James Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, has been a terror on opposing quarterbacks since he became the starting outside linebacker for the Steelers in 2007. One of the only things that has been able to stop him are injuries, as a hurt eye sidelined him for four games during the 2011 regular season (Week 5-8). Although he only played in 11 games, Harrison finished the regular season tied for the team lead with nine sacks.

During the second half of the regular season, Harrison registered seven sacks: three sacks twice (Week 9 vs. Bal and Week 13 vs. Cin) and one against St. Louis in Week 16. He became the third Steelers' player to register at least three sacks multiple times in one season since 1982 (Chad Brown, 1996, 2; Mike Merriweather, 1984, 3).

Harrison has five regular-season games with at least three sacks in his career, tying Joey Porter for the most 3+ sack games during the regular season by a Steelers' player since 1982.

Including the postseason, Harrison has nine sacks against the Ravens, the most by any Steelers' player against Baltimore. He has eight career sacks versus the Bengals.

The Steelers are 28-12 when he posts a sack.

Climbing The Ranks: With 58.0 career sacks, LB James Harrison is one shy of tying Keith Willis (59.0, 1982-91) for the third most by a Steelers since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Rk.	Player	Sacks
1.	Jason Gildon (1994-2003)	77.0
2.	Joey Porter (1999-2006)	60.0
3.	Keith Willis (1982-91)	59.0
4.	James Harrison (2002-Present)	58.0

Outside Presence: LB James Harrison forced a fumble on a fourth-quarter sack of Ravens QB Joe Flacco in Week 9, giving PIttsburgh the ball at its own 42-yard line. Harrison forced a fumble on a sack that SS Troy Polamalu returned 16 yards for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 20-13 lead during a Week 3 victory over Indianapolis.

Harrison now has 26 forced fumbles in his career, ranking second in team history for career forced fumbles, behind only Greg Lloyd. The following is a list of the top seven career forced fumble leaders for the Steelers since 1987:

Rk.	Name	# of FF
1.	Greg Lloyd	36
2.	James Harrison	26
3.	Jason Gildon	18
4.	Rod Woodson	17
5.	Joey Porter	16
	Carnell Lake	16
7.	James Farrior	14
	Levon Kirkland	14

In 2010, Harrison had a team-best six forced fumbles. The following is a list of the top five single-season forced fumbles leaders for the Steelers since 1992:

Rk.	Name (Year)	# of FF
1.	James Harrison (2008)	7
	Greg Lloyd (1994)	7
3.	James Harrison (2010)	6
	James Harrison (2007)	6
	Greg Lloyd (1995)	6

Sack Attack: Despite missing five games during the 2011 regular season LB James Harrison tied for the team-lead with 9.0 sacks. He had a team-high 10.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 10 in 2009.

Harrison had a career-high 16 sacks in 2008, breaking the team record for sacks in a season. Mike Merriweather previously held the record since 1984.

The following is a list of the top five single-season sack leaders in team history:

Rk.	Name (Year)	# of Sacks
1.	James Harrison (2008)	16
2.	Mike Merriweather (1984)	15
3.	Kevin Greene (1994)	14
	Keith Willis (1983)	14
5.	LaMarr Woodley (2009)	13.5
	Jason Gildon (2000)	13.5

Double Trouble: The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL, and current linebackers James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history.

In 2011, the two combined for 18.0 sacks during the regular season: Harrison (9.0) and Woodley (9.0), even though Harrison (Weeks 5-8, 14) and Woodley (Games 9-11, 13, 15) eached missed games.

In 2010, Harrison (10.5) and Woodley (10) combined for 20.5 sacks. They totaled 23.5 sacks between them (Woodley 13.5, Harrison, 10) in 2009.

In 2008, Harrison and Woodley broke the team's top sack duo record (since 1982) by combining for 27.5 sacks. The 27.5 sacks by Harrison (16) and Woodley (11.5) broke the record (24) previously held by Jason Gildon (13.5) and Joey Porter (10.5) in 2000 and Kevin Greene (14) and Greg Lloyd (10) in 1994.

Steelers Top Sack Duos (Since 1982)

* Steelers Record

Double-Digit Duty: LB LaMarr Woodley (9.0) and LB James Harrison (9.0) each came up one sack short of becoming the first Steelers with at least 10 sacks in four consecutive seasons, dating back to 1982 when sacks became an official statisitc.

Harrison became the first player in team history to post at least 10 sacks in three straight seasons as he had a team-best 10.5 in 2010. Harrison posted 10 in 2009 and a career-best (team record) 16 in 2008.

Additionally, Woodley became just the second player in team history to post at least 10 sacks in three straight years as he finished with 10 in 2010. Woodley recorded 13.5 in 2009 and 11.5 in 2008.

Turnover Party: In the final seven games of the regular season, Pittsburgh recorded 11 takeaways (nine interceptions and two fumble recoveries) after only recording four (two interceptions, two fumble recoveries) in the first nine games of the season.

Besides blowout wins of 27-0 versus St. Louis in Week 16 and 35-7 against Cincinnati in Week 13, the Steelers won four of the final seven games by a combined 26 points, with three wins being sealed by timely interceptions late in the fourth quarter.

In Week 14 against Cleveland, CB William Gay registered an interception in the end zone with 3:11 to play in the fourth quarter. In Week 12 at Kansas City, CB Keenan Lewis recorded his first career interception at the Pittsburgh 14-yard line with 28 seconds remaining. Against Cincinnati in Week 10, Gay came up with an interception at the Steelers 25-yard line with 2:33 left in the game.

Mr. Versatility: LB Lawrence Timmons has the ability to do many things for the Pittsburgh defense and during the 2011 regular season he was utilized in many areas. Due to injuries, Timmons had to start four games at outside linebacker while starting 12 at his natural inside linebacker position. His versatility helped the Steelers maintain a defense that finished the regular season ranked first in yards allowed.

To finish the regular season, Timmons registered a sack in back-to-back games. In Week 10 against the Bengals, Timmons played his normal spot at inside linebacker and registered his fourth career interception, diving to pick off an Andy Dalton at the Steelers 33-yard line in the fourth quarter. It was the second consecutive year Timmons registered an interception at Cincinnati.

Timmons finished the regular season tied for third on the team with 86 tackles, while also registering 11 quarterback hurries and five passes defensed.

Making It Work: During the 2011 regular season, the Steelers had to deal with injury issues on defense. Pittsburgh used nine different starting lineups in 16 games and still finished the season ranked near the top of the league in many defensive categories.

During the regular season, the Steelers only played five games with all four starting linebackers.

The following is the number of Steelers defenders who have missed games in 2011 (regular starters bolded):

Player	Games Missed
DE Aaron Smith (IR)	12
NT Chris Hoke (IR)	10
LB LaMarr Woodley	6
LB James Harrison	5
LB Jason Worilds	4
NT Casey Hampton	3
DE Brett Keisel	2
LB James Farrior	2
Total	44

Great First Half: Before being sidelined with a hamstring injury suffered in Week 8 versus New England, LB LaMarr Woodley registered nine sacks through the first eight games. Despite missing six games, Woodley's nine sacks tied for the team lead.

Nine sacks was the second most he recorded in the first eight games of a season during his career (9.5, 2008). Woodley's nine sacks also marked the fourth-highest total for a Steeler in the first half of a season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982:

Rk.	Player (Year)	Sacks in Games 1-8
1.	James Harrison (2008)	10.0
1.	Keith Willis (1983)	10.0
3.	LaMarr Woodley (2008)	9.5
4.	LaMarr Woodley (2011)	9.0

Bringing The Wood: LB LaMarr Woodley has been a force defensively since he became a starter in 2008. The fifth-year linebacker finished the regular season with nine sacks in 10 games played. Including the postseason, Woodley has recorded at least half a sack 12 times in the past 15 games he has played, totaling 15.5 sacks during the span.

Woodley recorded 1.5 sacks in Week 5 versus Tennessee and 2.0 sacks in Week 6 against Jacksonville, Week 7 at Arizona and Week 8 versus New England. It was the 16th regular season game of his career with at least 1.5 sacks. It marked the first time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that a Steelers' player registered at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular season games. The last player in the NFL with more than one sack in four straight games was Simeon Rice in 2002 (five straight).

His sack in Week 1 at Baltimore marked the third time in the past four Kickoff Weekend games (2008, 2010, 2011) he recorded a sack.

Woodley had posted at least a half-sack in 10 straight games, dating from 2009-10, and had 13.5 sacks during that span (Week 10 of 2009 through Week 2 of 2010). That span of 10 straight games broke the team's all-time record of six, previously held by Greg Lloyd in 1994.

Elite Company: LB LaMarr Woodley has registered 48.0 sacks in his first five seasons with the Steelers, which ranks as the best start in franchise history and is the eighth most career sacks for a Steeler.

The following is a breakdown of sacks in the history of the club in player's first two, three, four and five seasons (Kevin Greene had 35.5 sacks in his first three seasons with the team, but he had previously played with the L.A. Rams):

Most Sacks (two consecutive seasons)

Name	Sacks	Years

INDIVIDUAL SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Return Success: WR Antonio Brown performed well in the return game, helping to fuel a regular season that saw him set the franchise record with 2,048 all-purpose yards and earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl.

Brown also became the first player in NFL history with at least 1,000 receiving yards (1,108) and at least 1,000 return yards (1,062) in the same season.

In Week 13 versus Cincinnati, Brown returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown. For his career, Brown now has one punt return for a touchdown and one kickoff return for a touchdown. Dating back to 1941, he is one of three Steelers' players with at least one punt return for a touchdown and one kick return for a touchdown:

Player	PR TD	KR TD
Antwaan Randle El	4	1
Rod Woodson	2	2
Antonio Brown	1	1

Brown finished the season ranked fifth in the AFC in punt returns (10.8 avg.) and third in kickoff returns (27.3 avg.).

During the regular season, Brown recorded other long punt returns to compliment the touchdowns. He registered a 41-yard return in Week 2 versus Seattle. He followed it up with a return of 37 yards at Indianapolis and 33 yards at Houston. In Week 7 at Arizona, Brown averaged 23.5 yards on two punt returns, including a long of 31 yards.

Brown has also performed well on kick returns. Against Tennesse in Week 5, he registered the second longest kick return of his career (89-yard TD, 9/12/10 vs. Atl), a 52-yarder to the 50-yard line. In Week 1 against the Baltimore Ravens he returned three kickoffs for a total of 103 yards (31, 41 and 31 yards).

Coming Up Clutch: K Shaun Suisham connected on a 38-yard field goal with four seconds left in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh a 23-20 victory over Indianapolis in Week 3. It marked the fourth game-winning field goal of his career and second as a member of the Steelers.

at NYJ, 11/4/07	46	OT	23-20
vs. Mia, 9/9/07	39	OT	16-13

Back Again: For the second consecutive season, P Jeremy Kapinos signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers on 11/5/11 to replace P Daniel Sepulveda who was placed on the Reserve/Injured List due to a knee injury.

In the final eight games of the regular season, Kapinos averaged 45.0 yards (38.3 net avg.) on 34 punts with a long of 59 yards while landing 10 punts inside the 20-yard line.

In 2010, Kapinos was signed in early Devember to fill in for the injured Sepulveda. In four regular season games in 2010, Kapinos averaged 41.1 yards per punt (32.3 net avg.) while averaging 48.0 yards per punt (38.5 net avg.) in three postseason contests.

Kapinos had a very good preseason in 2011, averaging 49.8 yards on nine punts (44.6 net avg.) with a long of 63 yards and four punts landing inside the 20-yard line.

Preseason Game #1

Washington 16, Pittsburgh 7
Aug. 12, 2011
FedEx Field (68,320)

LANDOVER, Md. – For the first time since 2006, the Steelers lost their preseason opener, falling to the Washington Redskins, 16-7, at FedEx Field. The Steelers fell to 4-9 in the preseason when facing the Redskins on the road.

Neither team scored in the first quarter, but the Redskins had an opportunity on their opening drive of the game but K Shayne Graham missed a 29-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, QB Rex Grossman found WR Santana Moss for an eight-yard touchdown to give the Redskins a 7-0 lead. Grossman finished with a game-high 207 yards passing and one touchdown. Moss finished with a game-high seven receptions for 64 yards and one touchdown.

The Steelers answered Washington on their next possession. RB Isaac Redman broke free for a 22-yard touchdown run to tie the game, 7-7. Redman finished the game with five carries for 42 yards and one touchdown. But it would be the last points the Steelers would score. Prior to halftime, Graham missed another field goal, this time from 49 yards, and the teams went into halftime tied 7-7.

The Steelers only managed to gain 57 yards of offense in the second half, and only drove the ball into Redskins' territory once. The Redskins moved the ball well in the second half. Rookie RBs Evan Royster and Roy Helu combined for 88 rushing yards, while QB Kellen Clemens added 105 passing yards. K Graham Gano made three second-half field goals, from 32, 34 and 45 yards out, to seal the victory for the Redskins.

The Redskins gained 452 total yards of offense (312 passing, 140 rushing) to the Steelers' 186 yards of total offense (103 passing, 83 rushing). Washington's offense had 27 first downs, while the Steelers only had 12. The Redskins' defense added three sacks, while the Steelers' defense had zero. Washington also dominated the time of possession, holding the football for almost 20 minutes more than Pittsburgh.

The majority of the Steelers' starters only played one or two series, while the Redskins' starters played the entirety of the first half. Despite accounts that the preseason games would consist of sloppy play, there were only five total penalties in the game and neither team had a turnover.

Preseason Game #2

Pittsburgh 24, Philadelphia 14
Aug. 18, 2011
Heinz Field (55,189)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers' offense scored three touchdowns in the first half, cruising to a 24-14 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 11-4 all-time against the Eagles at home in the preseason.

Less than a week after the Steelers' first-team offense failed to score a touchdown, they erupted for three first-half scores. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 29-yard touchdown midway through the first quarter to put the Steelers up 7-0. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for a 20-yard touchdown early in the second quarter to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead. Roethlisberger finished the game 8-of-12 for 125 yards and two touchdowns.

On the Eagles next drive S Ryan Clark picked off QB Michael Vick, the first of five forced turnovers by the Steelers on the night. On the following Eagles drive, CB Keenan Lewis picked off Vick. And prior to halftime, S Troy Polamalu picked off Vick to set the Steelers up in Eagles' territory. With only 19 seconds left in the half QB Byron Leftwich found newly acquired WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 20-yard score and the Steelers went into halftime with a 21-0 lead. Leftwich completed 4-of-7 passes for 67 yards and one touchdown.

QB Vince Young came in for the Eagles in the third quarter and he was picked off by LB Larry Foote. Early in the fourth quarter, RB Dion Lewis was stripped by S Will Allen, the fifth turnover of the night for the Eagles.

K Swayze Waters added a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the Steelers up 24-0. The Eagles would score twice late in the fourth quarter. WR Gerald Jones had two touchdown receptions of 14 and seven yards from QB Mike Kafka. Kafka finished with a game-high 160 yards passing.

The Steelers offense had 403 total yards of total offense (259 passing 144 rushing) and zero turnovers. RB Jonathan Dwyer had a game-high 44 yards rushing. The Steelers defense forced five turnovers (4 interceptions, 1 fumble). Also, 15 different Steelers caught at least one pass.

Preseason Game #3

Pittsburgh 34, Atlanta 16
Aug. 27, 2011
Heinz Field (56,754)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Antonio Brown combined for two long touchdowns (77, 44) in the first half, and the Steelers cruised to a 34-16 victory against the Atlanta Falcons at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh is now 7-0 all time versus the Falcons in the preseason.

The Steelers wasted no time getting on the board, scoring only a minute and a half into the game. Brown took the opening kickoff back 51 yards and three plays later RB Rashard Mendenhall scored on a one-yard TD run. LB Lawrence Timmons' interception of QB Matt Ryan set up the Steelers second score, a Shaun Suisham 19-yard field goal, and the Steelers led 10-0.

The Falcons tied the game 10-10 on a field goal by K Matt Bryant and a 10-yard touchdown pass from Ryan to WR Roddy White. But the Steelers' offense kept rolling. Roethlisberger found Brown in the middle of the field for a 77-yard touchdown midway through the second quarter. With less than two minutes left in the half, Brown grabbed a 44-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger. Brown finished with a game-high 137 receiving yards and a game-high two touchdowns, while adding 109 kickoff return yards. Roethlisberger finished with 214 yards passing on just 11 completions and two touchdowns.

Bryant added a 46-yard field goal prior to halftime to cut the lead to 24-16. Neither team scored in the third quarter, but seconds into the fourth quarter, CB Crezdon Butler stepped in front of QB Chris Redman's pass and took it 95 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 31-16 lead. Butler also addded a game-high nine tackles. K Swayze Waters added a 27-yard field goal late in the game to seal the victory.

The Steelers offense had 320 total yards (224 passing, 96 rushing), and for the third consecutive game Pittsburgh's offense did not commit a turnover. The Steelers had a preseason-high in kickoff return yards (124) and interception return yards (139). RB Jonathan Dwyer led the team in rushing (36 yards) for the second consecutive game.

Preseason Game #4

Pittsburgh 33, Carolina 17
Sept. 1, 2011
Bank of America Stadium (72,358)

CHARLOTTE – For the second consecutive year, the Steelers finished their preseason schedule in familiar fashion, beating the Carolina Panthers. With the 33-17 victory at Bank of America Stadium, the Steelers improved to 8-4 all time when facing the Panthers in the preseason.

The Steelers struck first for the third consecutive game, this time with a little luck. WR Mike Wallace caught the ball at the one-yard line, but he was stripped by CB Chris Gamble and the football rolled into the end zone. TE David Johnson fell on the loose ball and the Steelers took a 7-0 lead. The Panthers scored only three minutes later when rookie QB Cam Newton found TE Jeremy Shockey for a 10-yard touchdown to tie the game 7-7.

The Steelers went up 14-7 midway through the second quarter on RB Jonathan Dwyer's 50-yard touchdown run. Dwyer finished the night with a game-high 88 yards rushing on 13 carrries. It was the third straight game that he led the Steelers in rushing. Dwyer finished the preseason with a team-leading 175 yards on the ground.

The Panthers though struck quickly on their ensuing drive. QB Derek Anderson found WR David Clowney for a 41-yard touchdown pass to tie the game 14-14. The Steelers would take a 20-14 halftime lead on K Shaun Suisham's two field goals. Suisham connected on field goals from 52 and 31 yards.

The Panthers got within three points on K Adi Kunalic's 20-yard field goal early in the third quarter, but it's the closest the Panthers would get the rest of the game. K Swayze Waters added two field goals, a 22-yarder late in the third quarter and a 53-yarder early in the fourth to put the Steelers up 26-17. QB Dennis Dixon found rookie TE Weslye Saunders for a 15-yard touchdown pass to seal the 33-17 victory for the Steelers. Dixon finished the game 11-of-22 for 157 yards and one touchdown.

The Steelers offense racked up 362 total yards, including a preseason-high 154 yards rushing. The Steelers offense did not committ a turnover for the entire preseason. The defense had a preseason-high four sacks and forced two turnovers. NT Steve McLendon had one sack, giving him a team-high two for the preseason.

Game #1
Baltimore 35, Pittsburgh 7
M&T Bank Stadium (71,434)

BALTIMORE – The Steelers dropped their season opener for the first time since 2002, losing to the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium, 35-7. It was the largest margin of victory for the Ravens in the series history, thanks in large part to seven Steelers' turnovers.

It only took three plays for the Ravens to score their first touchdown. RB Ray Rice took the opening snap and rushed for 36 yards. Two plays later QB Joe Flacco found WR Anquan Boldin for a 27-yard touchdown and the Ravens led 7-0.

The Steelers first turnover came late in the first quarter when LB Terrell Suggs sacked and stripped the ball from QB Ben Roethlisberger. Suggs finished with a game-high three sacks. Rice then ran it in from one-yard out to put the Ravens up 14-0. The Steelers responded on their ensuing drive. Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for an 11-yard touchdown to cut the lead 14-7. But it would be the last points the Steelers would score.

Flacco and Rice hooked up for an 11-yard touchdown prior to halftime and the Steelers found themselves in a 14-point hole. On the Steelers' first play of the second half, Ravens' NT Haloti Ngata broke free and stripped the football from RB Rashard Mendenhall, setting the Ravens up at the Steelers' 16-yard line. On the very next play, Flacco found TE Ed Dickson for an 18-yard touchdown. Flacco finished the game 17-of-29 for 224 yards with three touchdowns and zero interceptions.

On the Steelers' very next offensive play, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Ray Lewis. And on the Steelers ensuing drive, it looked as if they would find a way into the endzone, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by S Ed Reed. After Reed's interception, the Ravens marched right down the field and K Billy Cundiff connected on a 29-yard field goal.

Reed picked off Roethlisberger again in the fourth quarter, and the Steelers' RB Mewelde Moore was stripped by Lewis midway through the fourth quarter for the Steelers' seventh turnover. Cundiff connected from 30 yards out before the two-minute warning to give the Ravens the 35-7 victory.

Depite the turnovers, Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 280 yards passing. WR Mike Wallace also posted his ninth career 100-yard receiving game and fourth consecutive 100-yard game in the regular season. Wallace tied a career-high with eight receptions. LB LaMarr Woodley posted his 40th career sack, which tied him for 10th on the team's all-time list.

Game #2
Pittsburgh 24, Seattle 0
Sept. 18, 2011
Heinz Field (63,663)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers won their ninth straight home opener, shutting out the Seattle Seahawks 24-0 at Heinz Field. This was the team's first shutout since the 2008 season and the second-consecutive time the Seahawks have been shut out at Heinz Field.

On the Steelers' opening drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team to the Seattle one-yard line but the Seahawks held the Steelers on fourth-and-goal. The Steelers responded on their next drive when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out to put the Steelers up 7-0. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 66 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers went up 14-0 in the second quarter when RB Isaac Redman scored on a 20-yard touchdown run. It was Redman's first career rushing touchdown. He finished the game with 49 yards rushing and one touchdown. Steelers' K Shaun Suisham added a 20-yard field goal late in the first half and the Steelers took a 17-0 lead into halftime.

The Steelers scored their final points when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a two-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter. Wallace tied a career-high with eight receptions for 126 yards and one touchdown. The 126 receiving yards were the second-highest total of his career. Wallace also surpassed 100+ yards receiving for the fifth consecutive regular-season game.

The Steelers defense did not budge against Seattle, only letting up 164 total yards (133 passing, 31 rushing). The 164 yards allowed are the third-lowest total since the start of the 2008 season. The defense added five sacks. NT Steve McLendon recorded his first career half-sack and LB James Harrison became just the seventh player in team history to reach 50 sacks with his sack of QB Tarvaris Jackson.

With the victory, Roethlisberger won his 70th game as a starting quarterback. Roethlisberger is now 5-0 in home openers.

Game #3
Pittsburgh 23, Indianapolis 20
Lucas Oil Stadium (66,309)

INDIANAPOLIS – K Shaun Suisham nailed a 38-yard field goal with only four seconds left in the game to lift the Steelers to a 23-20 victory against the Indianapolis Colts at Lucas Oil Stadium. With the victory, the Steelers improved to 2-1 on the season. It marked the first victory for the Steelers in Indianapolis during the regular season since 1991.

The Steelers took the opening kickoff and went up 3-0 on Suisham's 48-yard field goal. Late in the first quarter, the Steelers took a 10-0 lead when QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for an 81-yard touchdown, the longest reception in Wallace's career. Wallace finished the game with a career-high 144 yards receiving and one touchdown, extending his franchise record to six consecutive 100-yard receiving games.

The Colts scored 13 unanswered points, thanks in large part to three Steelers' turnovers. A Roethlisberger fumble set up K Adam Vinatieri's 21-yard field goal to cut the lead 10-3. And with less than two minutes remaining in the half, Roethlisberger was sacked and stripped and Colts' DE Jamaal Anderson scooped the ball up and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off and Vinatieri connected from 25 yards out to give the Colts a 13-10 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game 13-13 early in the fourth quarter on Suisham's 44-yard field goal. Midway through the fourth quarter the Steelers' defense forced its first turnover of the season on LB James Harrison's sack and forced fumble. S Troy Polamalu picked up the loose ball and returned it 16 yards to give the Steelers a 20-13 lead.

The Colts though struck on their next drive. RB Joseph Addai scored from six yards out to tie the game 20-20. But there was plenty of time for the Steelers to score. Roethlisberger led the team on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that was capped off by Suisham's game-winning field goal. It was Roethlisberger's 24th game-winning/overtime drive of his career. Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 364 yards passing with one touchdown.

Game #4
Houston 17, Pittsburgh 10
Oct. 2, 2011
Reliant Stadium (71,585)

HOUSTON – RB Arian Foster scored on a 42-yard run midway through the fourth quarter to score the final points of a 17-10 victory for the Houston Texans over the Steelers at Reliant Stadium. With the loss, the Steelers fell to 2-2 on the season.

The Texans scored on their first possession as QB Matt Schaub led the team on a 19-play, 95-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown toss to TE Owen Daniels.

K Neil Rackers added a 25-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Texans a 10-0 lead. The Steelers finally had some momentum on their final drive of the half. K Shaun Suisham attempted a 30-yard field goal, but it was blocked by S Danieal Manning. CB Johnathan Joseph then scooped up the loose football and returned 61 yards for a touchdown but the play was negated on a block in the back penalty. The Steelers trailed 10-0 at the half.

On the Steelers' first possession of the second half QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on a 13-play, 74-yard drive that was capped by RB Rashard Mendenhall's three-yard touchdown run. The Steelers then tied the game, 10-10, when Suisham connected from 26 yards to begin the fourth quarter.

On the Texans' ensuing possession, Foster broke free and scored from 42 yards out. It was the longest run the Steelers' defense had given up since the 2006 season. Foster finished the game with 30 carries for 155 yards and one touchdown. The Steelers though had a chance to tie the game with less than a minute left, but Roethlisberger was picked off by CB Jason Allen.

The Texans rushed for 180 yards, which is the second-most rushing yards the Steelers' defense allowed in a game since the 2001 season. Foster's 155 rushing yards were the second-most by a running back against the Steelers' defense since 2001.

WR Hines Ward had one reception for 19 yards, giving him 11,838 career receiving yards, which puts him in 20th place in NFL History for receiving yards.

Game #5
Pittsburgh 38, Tennessee 17
Oct. 9, 2011
Heinz Field (63,875)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger threw for five touchdowns and RB Jonathan Dwyer ran for 107 yards, propelling the Steelers to a 38-17 victory over the Tennessee Titans at Heinz Field.

The Titans scored on their first possession of the game, marching 69 yards on 13 plays. K Rob Bironas connected from 29 yards out to put the Titans up 3-0.

The Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions of the game. Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for an eight-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead. On the Steelers ensuing drive, Dwyer, on his first play of the season, raced down the sideline for a 76-yard run. It was the longest run of his career and it tied for the seventh longest run from scrimmage in Steelers' history. Later in the drive, Roethlisberger found WR Hines Ward for a seven-yard touchdown, and the Steelers led 14-3.

Roethlisberger threw his third touchdown of the day midway through the second quarter, finding TE David Johnson for a one-yard score. It was Johnson's first career touchdown, and the Steelers went into halftime up 21-3. The Steelers went up 28-3 when Roethlisberger connected with Ward on a five-yard touchdown pass. It was Ward's first multi-touchdown game of the season and 16th of his career. Ward finished with a game-high seven catches for 54 yards and two touchdowns.

The Titans cut the lead 28-10 on RB Chris Johnson's one-yard touchdown run but the Steelers answered. K Shaun Suisham extended the lead to 31-10 with a 19-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter the Titans cut the lead 31-17, when QB Matt Hasselbeck connected with WR Damian Williams on a 19-yard touchdown.

Roethlisberger threw his fifth touchdown pass of the game on the Steelers' next drive, finding WR Mike Wallace for a 40-yard score. It marked the second time in his career that he threw five touchdowns. Roethlisberger finished the game 24-of-34 for 228 yards with five touchdowns and one interception.

The Steelers' offense gained a season-high 431 total yards, including a season-high 174 yards rushing. The Steelers' defense held the Titans to 66 yards rushing, and had three sacks and one interception.

Game #6
Pittsburgh 17, Jacksonville 13
Oct. 16, 2011
Heinz Field (62,934)

PITTSBURGH – RB Rashard Mendenhall returned to action after missing the previous week with a hamstring injury, and rushed for a season-high 146 yards, leading the Steelers to a 17-13 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 4-2 on the season, including a 3-1 record against the AFC South.

The Steelers wasted no time, scoring on their opening drive of the game. QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on a 10-play, 87-yard drive, that was capped off by Mendenhall's eight-yard touchdown run. The Steelers scored again on their next drive, when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 28-yard touchdown. Wallace finished with a game-high 76 yards on two receptions, including a long of 48 yards. It marked the fifth straight game Wallace had a reception of 40+ yards.

K Shaun Suisham connected on a 21-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. For the second consecutive game, the Steelers scored on their first three drives of the game. The Steelers' defense dominated the first half, holding the Jaguars to 68 total yards, while sacking QB Blaine Gabbert four times. The Jaguars found a way to score, when K Josh Scobee connected from 46 yards out, and the Steelers went into halftime with a 17-3 lead.

The Steelers offense failed to score in the second half, which allowed the Jaguars to chip away at the lead. Late in the third quarter, Gabbert found WR Jason Hill for an 18-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 17-10. Late in the fourth quarter, Scobee connected from 45 yards out to cut the lead to 17-13. The Jaguars had a chance to win the game on their final drive, but Gabbert's hail-mary attempt was knocked down by Steelers' defenders.

The Steelers offense totaled 370 yards, including a season-high 185 yards on the ground. The Steelers' defense held the Jaguars to 209 total yards, including 76 net passing yards. The Steelers defense also had five sacks, including a pair from both LB LaMarr Woodley and DE Brett Keisel.

Game #7
Pittsburgh 32, Arizona 20
Oct. 23, 2011
University of Phoenix Stadium (62,475)

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The Steelers won their third consecutive game, defeating the Arizona Cardinals 32-20 at the University of Phoenix Stadium. With the win, the Steelers improved to 5-2 on the season, including 2-0 against the NFC West.

The Steelers scored a touchdown on their first possession for the third straight game after S Ryan Clark intercepted QB Kevin Kolb off a tipped pass to set the Steelers up at the Cardinals 31-yard line. Five plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a 12-yard score, and the Steelers led 7-0.

Midway through the second quarter, Roethlisberger and WR Mike Wallace connected on a 95-yard touchdown reception. It was the longest pass play in Steelers' history and second-longest play from scrimmage in team history. Wallace has now recorded one reception of at least 40 yards in six consecutive games, which is the longest streak in the NFL since Isaac Bruce in 2000. Wallace finished with a game-high 118 yards receiving and one touchdown.

With the Steelers up 14-0, the Cardinals answered with a 13-play 80-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard run by RB Alfonso Smith to cut the lead 14-7. The Steelers went into halftime with a 17-7 lead when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 41-yard field goal as time expired.

The Cardinals cut the lead 17-14 when Kolb found RB LaRod Stephens-Howling for a 73-yard touchdown. But the Steelers put the game out of reach on their next three drives. Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a four-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 24-14. Then the Steelers registered a safety, their first since the 2008 season. LB LaMarr Woodley pressured Kolb in the end zone and Kolb was flagged for intentional grounding.

Suisham added two field goals in the fourth quarter (42, 39) to give the Steelers a 32-14 lead. The Cardinals added one score late in the fourth quarter.

Roethlisberger finished the game 26-of-39 for 361 yards with three touchdowns and zero interceptions, guiding the Steelers' offense to a season-high 445 total yards. Woodley added two sacks, marking the second time in his career that he's had three consecutive multi-sack games.

Game #8
Pittsburgh 25, New England 17
Oct. 30, 2011
Heinz Field (64,424)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers won their fourth straight contest, defeating the New England Patriots 25-17 at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 6-2 on the season.

The Steelers scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the fourth straight game as they drove 68 yards on 11 plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger found RB Mewelde Moore for a five-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. Roethlisberger finished the game with a season-high 365 passing yards and two touchdowns.

The Steelers increased their lead to 10-0 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 33-yard field goal. Roethlisberger looked poised to add to the lead but he was picked off by LB Gary Guyton. Guyton's interception set the Patriots up at the Steelers eight-yard line. Two plays later QB Tom Brady found WR Deion Branch for a two-yard touchdown to cut the lead 10-7.

Roethlisberger answered on the ensuing drive, finding WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 17-7 lead. Patirots K Stephen Gostkowksi added a 46-yard field goal prior to halftime to cut the lead 17-10.

The Steelers offense continued to control the clock after halftime. Suisham added two field goals (21, 23) to give the Steelers a 23-10 lead. The Patriots made the last few minutes of the fourth quarter very interesting. Brady found TE Aaron Hernandez for a one-yard score to cut the lead to 23-17. The Patriots onside kick attempt failed but the Steelers were unable to run out the clock. That left Brady with less than 30 seconds to work.

The Steelers defense sealed the win when DE Brett Keisel sacked Brady and forced a fumble. The ball rolled through the end zone and out of bounds for a safety. LB LaMarr Woodley added two sacks, becoming the first player in team history to register at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular-season games. The Steelers defense held the Patriots to season-lows in total net yards (213), passing yards (198) and points (17).

Game #9
Baltimore 23, Pittsburgh 20
Nov. 6, 2011
Heinz Field (64,581)

PITTSBURGH – For the second consecutive year, QB Joe Flacco threw the game-winning touchdown at Heinz Field, this time to WR Torrey Smith, and the Ravens beat the Steelers 23-20. The Steelers dropped to 6-3 on the season.

On the opening drive of the game, the Ravens traveled 74 yards in 14 plays to set up an 18-yard field goal by K Billy Cundiff to take a 3-0 lead. K Shaun Suisham tied the game with a 36-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

Both teams exchanged field goals as Cundiff made a 43-yarder midway through the second quarter and Suisham connected from 30 yards out with only one minute left in the half. Cundiff connected on a 51-yarder as the clock expired, and the Ravens led 9-6 at halftime.

LB Terrell Suggs picked off QB Ben Roethlisberger when the Steelers were driving early in the second half. The Ravens went up 16-6 on their ensuing drive when Rice scored from four yards out. The Steelers got right back into the game when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored on a one-yard run to cut the lead to 16-13. On the Ravens next drive, LB James Harrison forced a fumble on a sack of Flacco and CB William Gay fell on the loose ball. Harrison finished the game with three sacks in his first game back in more than one month.

Roethlisberger led his team on a six-play, 58-yard drive that was capped off by a 25-yard touchdown toss to WR Mike Wallace. Roethlisberger finished with 330 yards passing, becoming the only quarterback in Steelers' history to throw for 300+ yards in three consecutive regular-season games.

The Steelers defense held the Ravens on their next possession but the Steelers were unable to add to their total. They pinned the Ravens on their own eight-yard line with 2:24 left in the game. That's when Flacco led his team on a 13-play 92-yard drive that was capped by the 26-yard touchdown pass to Smith in closing seconds.

CINCINNATI – CB William Gay picked off QB Andy Dalton late in the fourth quarter, helping to clinch the Steelers 24-17 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium. The Steelers also improved to 10-2 during the regular season at Paul Brown Stadium.

The Steelers raced to a 14-0 lead, scoring touchdowns on their first two possessions of the game. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 16-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It was Cotchery's first touchdown as a Steeler.

RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from two yards out late in the first quarter to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead. The Bengals scored with only 14 seconds left in the first quarter when Dalton found WR A.J. Green for a 36-yard touchdown. On the Steelers ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off by CB Leon Hall. The Bengals took over and K Mike Nugent made a 43-yard field goal to cut the lead to 14-10.

K Shaun Suisham connected from 39 yards with less than a minute remaining in the first half, and the Steelers went into halftime with a 17-10 lead. The Bengals tied the game at 17-17 when Dalton found TE Jermaine Gresham for a one-yard score. The Steelers registered the game-deciding touchdown late in the third quarter when Mendenhall scored from nine yards out. Mendenhall finished with 44 yards rushing and recorded his fourth multi-touchdown game of his career.

The Steelers got a lot of help from their defense in the fourth quarter, recording two crucial interceptions when the Bengals were driving. LB Lawrence Timmons picked off Dalton early in the fourth quarter off a deflection by Gay. Then Gay added his own interception as the Bengals were driving late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers' defense forced a season-high two turnovers.

Game #11
Pittsburgh 13, Kansas City 9
Nov. 27, 2011
Arrowhead Stadium (72,173)

KANSAS CITY – CB Keenan Lewis' interception of Chiefs' QB Tyler Palko late in the fourth quarter sealed the 13-9 Steelers' victory against the Kansas City Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium. The Steelers improved to 8-3 on the season and remained tied for first place in the AFC North.

Palko led the Chiefs on an 11-play, 57-yard drive set up K Ryan Succop for a 41-yard field goal on the opening drive of the game to put the Chiefs up 3-0.The Steelers marched the ball right down the field on their ensuing possession, but RB Mewelde Moore fumbled and the Chiefs recovered the football in the end zone.

On the ensuing drive the Steelers' defense came up big when DE Brett Keisel recovered a Palko fumble. On the Chiefs' next possession, CB Ike Taylor picked off Palko. K Shaun Suisham hit a 21-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3. S Ryan Mundy picked off Palko on the Chiefs' next possession. It was Mundy's first career interception.

The Steelers then marched right down the field. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Weslye Saunders for a two-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 10-3 lead. It was Saunders' first career touchdown reception. Roethlisberger finished the game with 193 yards passing and one touchdown.

Late in the second quarter, Succop connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the lead to 10-6. But as the halftime whistle sounded, Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal of his own to give the Steelers a 13-6 lead going into the break.

Though the Steelers' offense did not score a point in the second half, the Steelers' defense repeatedly shut down the Chiefs. Succop was able to make a 40-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter but it was too little, too late. As the Chiefs were driving to win the game, Palko threw his third interception of the night to Lewis.

The Steelers' offense outgained the Chiefs 290-252, and the Steelers' defense forced four turnovers. It was the most turnovers forced in a single game all season, and it was the first time the Steelers had a plus-two advantage in the turnover department.

Game #12
Pittsburgh 35, Cincinnati 7
Dec. 4, 2011
Heinz Field (63,697)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers exploded for 28 second quarter points and routed the Cincinnati Bengals 35-7 at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 9-3 on the season and remained tied for first place in the AFC North.

The Steelers got a lot of help in all three phases of the game. Cincinnati threatened on their first possession of the game, but DE Cameron Heyward blocked K Mike Nugent's field goal attempt, ending Cincinnati's momentum. Then the Steelers offense kicked it into high gear.

RB Rashard Mendenhall scored two consecutive touchdowns. Mendenhall first scored on a three-yard run and then scored on a five-yard run just two minutes later to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 60 rushing yards and two touchdowns. His 28 career rushing touchdowns moved him into fifth place on the Steelers' all-time rushing touchdowns list.

On the Bengals ensuing drive, WR Brandon Tate was stripped on his kickoff return by LB Stevenson Sylvester and WR Emmanuel Sanders fell on the loose ball. Three plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 12-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers a 21-0 lead.

The Bengals though would strike on their next drive, marching 80 yards in 10 plays. QB Andy Dalton found WR A.J. Green for an 11-yard touchdown to get the Bengals their only seven points of the game.

The Steelers forced the Bengals to punt on their next possession, and that's when the special teams delivered. WR Antonio Brown returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown, marking the first punt return for a touchdown by the Steelers since the 2006 regular season. The Steelers went into halftime with a 28-7 lead.

The Steelers went ahead 35-7 when Roethlisberger found Wallace again, this time for a 19-yard touchdown. Roethlisberger finished the game 15-of-23 for 176 yards and two touchdowns. Ben's 2,026 career completions moved him into first place on the Steelers all-time list for completions, passing Terry Bradshaw (2,025) for the most in team history.

Both teams removed their starters in the fourth quarter. CB Ike Taylor though picked off QB Bruce Gradkowski early in the fourth quarter. It marked the first time Taylor had interceptions in back-to-back regular season games in his career.

Game #13
Pittsburgh 14, Cleveland 3
Dec. 8, 2011
Heinz Field (60,754)

PITTSBURGH – Clinging to a 7-3 lead late in the game, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 79-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers a 14-3 victory. The Steelers improved to 10-3 on the season while the Browns fell to 4-9.

The Browns took a 3-0 lead on their opening drive when K Phil Dawson connected on a 20-yard field goal.

The Steelers responded on their first drive of the game, going 73 yards on five plays. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for an 11-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-3 lead. It was Cotchery's second career touchdown as a Steeler.

The Steelers defense made key plays, giving the Steelers offense many opportunities to increase their lead, but both WR Hines Ward and TE Heath Miller fumbled in the red zone. Midway through the second quarter, it appeared that Roethlisberger sustained a significant injury to his left leg and would miss the rest of the first half. But Roethlisberger came on the field after halftime and played every snap in the second half.

The Steelers and Browns though could not capitalize on each other's mistakes. Roethlisberger was picked off by S Mike Adams but the Browns could not score despite being in Steelers' territory. Cleveland had the ball inside the Steelers' 20-yard line with less than five minutes to go but QB Colt McCoy threw his second interception, this time to CB William Gay in the end zone and the Steelers took over at the Cleveland 20-yard line.

Two plays later, Roethlisberger found Brown for the game-winning touchdown. Roethlisberger finished with 280 yards passing and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 129.6, his highest of the season. He improved to 13-1 all time against the Browns. Brown continued his dominance as he has now led the Steelers in either receptions or receiving yards for the seventh consecutive game.

The Steelers defense continued its stellar play, recording three sacks and two interceptions. The defense has forced 10 turnovers in its last four games.

Game #14
San Francisco 20, Pittsburgh 3
Dec. 19, 2011
Candlestick Park (69,732)

SAN FRANCISCO – The Steelers suffered a 20-3 loss against the San Francisco 49ers on Monday Night Football at Candlestick Park. Despite the loss, the Steelers still clinched a playoff spot and remained tied for first place in the AFC North.

The start of the game was delayed because of a power outage, but once the game began, the Steelers had success moving the football early. However, their first two drives ended with interceptions. On the Steelers' first possession, QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by CB Carlos Rodgers. That led to a David Akers' 22-yard field goal, and the 49ers led 3-0.

Roethlisberger was picked off again on the Steelers' next drive, which led to another Akers' field goal. His 38-yard boot gave the 49ers a 6-0 lead. Right after Akers' field goal, the game was delayed again because of a power outage. Once play resumed, neither team was able to score, and the 49ers led 6-0 at halftime.

The Steelers finally got on the board midway through the third quarter when K Shaun Suisham nailed a 51-yard bomb to cut the lead to 6-3. It was Suisham's longest field goal as a Steeler.

The 49ers though drove right down the field on their ensuing drive. QB Alex Smith found TE Vernon Davis for a one-yard score to give the 49ers a 13-3 lead. Two drives later, Roethlisberger fumbled the football when he was sacked, giving the 49ers excellent field position. RB Frank Gore scored from five yards out to give the 49ers the 20-3 victory.

Despite outgaining the 49ers 389-287, the Steelers turned the ball over four times and did not force any turnovers. Roethlisberger threw for 330 yards but he threw three interceptions. WR Jerricho Cotchery recorded a season-high and his highest total as a Steeler with 93 receiving yards. TE Heath Miller added a season-high 82 receiving yards.

Game #15
Pittsburgh 27, St. Louis 0
Dec. 24, 2011
Heinz Field (60,081)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers, led by their running game and stingy defense, shut out the St. Louis Rams 27-0 in the final regular season home game at Heinz Field in 2011. This marked the 29th shutout for the Steelers since 1960, which is the second most in the NFL during that span. With the victory, the Steelers improved to 11-4 on the season, including a 7-1 record at home.

The Steelers took a 3-0 lead when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 21-yard field goal late in the first quarter. The Steelers increased their lead 10-0 when rookie RB John Clay scored on a 10-yard touchdown run midway through the second quarter. It was Clay's first career carry. The Steelers took a 10-0 lead into halftime.

Early in the third quarter, Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 13-0 lead. The Steelers then got two fourth quarter rushing touchdowns. RB Rashard Mendenhall scored the first on a one-yard run to give the Steelers a 20-0 lead, then RB Isaac Redman scored from two yards out to give the Steelers their final score.

Three Steelers running backs (Clay, Mendenhall and Redman) each scored a rushing touchdown, marking the first time since the 2008 season that three different Pittsburgh players each scored a rushing touchdown. The Steelers rushing attack finished with 169 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns.

QB Charlie Batch, filling in for injured QB Ben Roethlisberger, finished 15-of-22 for 208 yards, and improved to 5-2 as the Steelers starting quarterback. WR Antonio Brown set the franchise single-season record for all-purpose yards as he registered 77 all-purpose yards for the game to give him 2,048 on the season. Brown also surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season for the first time in his career.

The Steelers defense put together one of their most impressive performances of the season. They had three sacks and forced the Rams to punt seven times. They also allowed a season-low 68 net passing yards.

For the 12th time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, the Steelers won at least seven regular-season home games, including the fourth time in the history of Heinz Field.

Game #16
Pittsburgh 13, Cleveand 9
Jan. 1, 2012
Cleveland Browns Stadium (68,266)

CLEVELAND – The Steelers held on to beat the Cleveland Browns 13-9 in the 2011 regular-season finale at Cleveland Browns Stadium. The Steelers finished the season with a 12-4 record and entered the 2011 Playoffs as the #5 seed.

The Browns took a 3-0 lead in the second quarter when K Phil Dawson connected from 26 yards. Dawson connected on a 45-yard field goal with a minute left in the first half to give the Browns a 6-0 lead. However it left the Steelers with enough time to cut into the lead. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 19-yard field goal as time expired and the Steelers went into halftime trailing 6-3.

Suisham booted a 29-yard field goal early in the third quarter to tie the game at 6-6. On the Browns' ensuing drive, S Troy Polamalu picked off Browns' QB Seneca Wallace to set the Steelers up in Browns' territory. RB Isaac Redman scored on a seven-yard run to give the Steelers a 13-6 lead.

Dawson connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the Steelers lead 13-9. The Browns had plenty of opportunities to take the lead but they were unable to capitalize on two Steelers' fumbles. The Browns even had a chance to win the game on the final play, but Wallace's pass was broken up in the endzone by Steeler defenders.

QB Ben Roethlisberger finished with 221 yards passing, giving him 4,077 yards on the season. It is the second time in his career that he surpassed 4,000 passing yards in a single season.

WR Hines Ward recorded five receptions, giving him 1,000 for his career. He is the first Steeler and eighth player in NFL history to reach the mark.

WR Antonio Brown became the first player in NFL history with at least 1,000 yards receiving and at least 1,000 return yards in the same season.

For the second straight game, the Steelers defense did not allow a touchdown. The Steelers finished the regular season holding five of their final six opponents under 10 points.

2011 AFC Wild Card Game

Denver 29, Pittsburgh 23 (OT)
Jan. 8, 2012
Sports Authority Field at Mile High (75,970)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fasted ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions, but they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham made a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

The Broncos would score 20 unanswered points in the second quarter. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime. After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

By holding each Broncos' running back to less than 100 yards rushing, the Steelers extended their streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher in the postseason to an NFL-best 18 consecutive postseason contests.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

1947 NFL Divisional Game
Philadelphia 21, Pittsburgh 0
December 21, 1947

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

1962 Playoff Bowl
Detroit 17, Pittsburgh 10
January 6, 1963

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7
December 23, 1972
(50,350)

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

December 22, 1973

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

1974 AFC Divisional Playoff

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

1974 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 24, Oakland 13

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gutty two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Then Andy Russell scored on a record 93-yard fumble return following a Ham sacking of Jones who had returned at the start of the final quarter.

1975 AFC Championship

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds.

Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

(60,020)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

1976 AFC Championship

December 26, 1976

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff

Denver 34, Pittsburgh 21
December 24, 1977
(75,011)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were outgained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

1978 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 33, Denver 10
December 30, 1978
(48,921)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

1978 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5
January 7, 1979
(49,417)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

1979 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14
December 30, 1979
(50,214)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1979 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13
January 6, 1980
(50,475)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1982 AFC Tournament

San Diego 31, Pittsburgh 28
January 9, 1983
(53,546)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

Los Angeles 38, Pittsburgh 10
January 1, 1984
(90,334)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 24, Denver 17
December 30, 1984
(74,981)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutty two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

1984 AFC Championship

Miami 45, Pittsburgh 28
January 6, 1985
(76,029)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT)
December 31, 1989
(58,306)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merril Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

1989 Divisional Playoff

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 23
January 7, 1990
(75,868)

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merril Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

1992 AFC Divisional Playoff

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3
January 9, 1993
(60,407)

PITTSBURGH — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Frerotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

1993 Wild Card Game

Kansas City 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT)
January 8, 1994
(74,515)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 29, Cleveland 9
January 7, 1995
(58,185)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh scored on its first three possessions on drives of 65, 53 and 74 yards en route to a 29-9 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Browns made it 17-3 with a 22-yard Matt Stover field goal. Pittsburgh got one more opportunity when Tim McKyer intercepted Vinny Testaverde on the Cleveland 27 yard-line and returned it to the six, with 46 seconds remaining in the half. Three plays later, Pittsburgh took a 24-3 halftime lead when Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a nine-yard grab.

The Steelers added a 40-yard Anderson field goal in the third quarter and a safety by Carnell Lake in the fourth quarter.

Cleveland drove into Pittsburgh territory just three times in 12 possessions. The Steelers outgained Cleveland 424 yards to 186, 23 first downs to 10 and had 42:27 to 17:33 advantage in time of possession.

The victory was Pittsburgh's first playoff win in five years.

1994 AFC Championship

San Diego 17, Pittsburgh 13
January 15, 1995
(61,545)

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKeyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 40, Buffalo 21
January 6, 1996
(59,072)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

1995 AFC Championship

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

(61,062)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

1996 AFC Divisional Playoff

January 5, 1997
(60,188)

FOXBORO, Mass. — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

1997 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 7, New England 6
January 3, 1998
(61,228)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

1997 AFC Championship

January 11, 1998
(61,382)

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 27, Baltimore 10
January 20, 2002
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

2002 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 36, Cleveland 33
January 5, 2003
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

2004 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 20, New York Jets 17 (OT)
January 15, 2005
(64,917)

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

2004 AFC Championship Game

New England 41, Pittsburgh 27
January 23, 2005
(65,242)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers dreams of advancing to the Super Bowl ended as they lost a disappointing 41-27 loss to New England in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Three first-half Steelers' turnovers were converted into 17 New England points as the Patriots jumped out to a 24-3 lead at halftime, despite controlling the ball for only 10:19.

Steelers rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger suffered his first career loss as a starter. His first pass of the game was intercepted by New England, setting up a 48-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal.

New England capitalized on its next possession when QB Tom Brady hit WR Deion Branch for a 60-yard touchdown score.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 10-3 on a 43-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. The Patriots extended their lead to 17-3 on a nine-yard TD pass to WR David Givens.

The Steelers were ready to answer on their next drive, moving the ball to the New England 19. But Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by S Rodney Harrison and returned 87 yards for a touchdown.

Steelers RB Jerome Bettis scored on a five-yard touchdown run to bring Pittsburgh within 24-10 in the third. On the next drive, though, the Patriots increased the lead to 31-10 on a 25-yard touchdown run by Corey Dillon.

A 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward and a 20-yard field goal by Jeff Reed trimmed the lead to 31-17.

Vinatieri's 31-yard field goal and a 23-yard touchdown pass to Branch extended the Patriots lead to 41-20.

Pittsburgh scored its final touchdown on a seven-yard pass to Burress, but New England ran out the clock for the victory.

2005 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 31, Cincinnati 17
January 8, 2006
(65,870)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

2005 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 21, Indianapolis 18
Jan. 15, 2006
RCA Dome (57,449)

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerrin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its' offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

2005 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Denver 17
Jan. 22, 2006
INVESCO Field at Mile High (76,174)

DENVER — Pittsburgh advanced to its first Super Bowl in 10 years as it defeated the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The Steelers, who won their seventh straight game overall, became the first team in NFL history to win three straight road playoff games and became the first sixth seed to play in the Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his outstanding postseason play as he finished 21-of-29 for 275 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.9. He also added a four-yard rushing touchdown late in the game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter as K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard field goal with 4:11 left. It was the longest postseason field goal for Pittsburgh since Norm Johnson had a 50-yarder in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Roethlisberger then hit WR Cedrick Wilson on a 12-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to up the lead to 10-0.

After a Jason Elam field goal pulled the Broncos to within 10-3, Pittsburgh scored two times in the final two minutes of the first half to take a 24-3 halftime lead. RB Jerome Bettis scored from three yards out and WR Hines Ward hauled in a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger with seven seconds left.

Denver used a 30-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ashley Lelie with 3:36 left in the third quarter to trim the Steelers' advantage to 24-10. However, Reed came right back with a 42-yard field goal on the next possession to make it a 27-10 lead with 13:38 left in the game.

Mike Anderson scored on a three-yard run with just under eight minutes left to bring Denver to within 10 points (27-17), but Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

Wilson finished with a game-high five catches for 92 yards while Ward added five receptions for 59 yards. WR Antwaan Randle El also pulled in four catches for 52 yards.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:07 but was outgained on the ground 97-90. The Steelers finished with 358 total yards to the Broncos' 308.

CB Ike Taylor and LB Larry Foote each collected an interception for the Pittsburgh defense, while DE Brett Keisel posted two sacks. LB Joey Porter added one sack and also forced a fumble by Plummer.

The Steelers finished the game with an astounding 63 percent (10 of 16) conversion rate on third down.

2007 AFC Wild Card Game

Jacksonville 31, Pittsburgh 29
Jan. 5, 2008
Heinz Field (63,629)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

2008 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 35, San Diego 24
Jan. 11, 2009
Heinz Field (63,899)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to their fourth AFC Championship Game in eight seasons as they defeated the San Diego Chargers 35-24 in an AFC Divisional contest at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh advanced to its 14th career AFC Championship Game with the win.

San Diego struck first on the opening possession of the game, covering 75 yards in only four plays, taking barely two minutes off the game clock. WR Vincent Jackson got behind Steelers' CB Ike Taylor and hauled in a 41-yard touchdown reception to give the Chargers a 7-0 lead.

Steelers' WR Santonio Holmes evened the score when he returned a punt 67 yards for a score. San Diego retook the lead, 10-7, courtesy of a 42-yard field goal by K Nate Kaeding.

RB Willie Parker gave the Steelers a 14-10 lead that they would never relinquish with 40 seconds remaining in the first half when he ran into the end zone around left end on a three-yard touchdown scamper.

The Steelers stretched that lead to 21-10 as they drove 77 yards in 13 plays, taking 7:56 off the clock with their opening possession of the third quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller on an eight-yard touchdown reception to cap the drive.

RB Gary Russell swelled the lead to 28-10 when he plunged across the goal-line from one-yard out in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

San Diego scored two touchdowns, a four-yard reception by WR Legedu Naanee and a 62-yard reception by RB Darren Sproles, sandwiched around a 16-yard touchdown run by Parker, his second score of the evening, to conclude the scoring in favor of the Steelers, 35-24.

Roethlisberger had a very efficient game, completing 17-of-26 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 98.4. He improved to 6-2 (.750 pct.) in the playoffs. Parker recorded his first career 100-yard rushing performance in the postseason with 146 yards on 27 attempts (5.4 avg.) with two touchdowns. WR Hines Ward had another big postseason performance with four receptions for 70 yards (17.5 avg.), including a long reception of 41 yards.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Rivers four times, with LB LaMarr Woodley leading the charge with two sacks. LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel had the other two Steelers' sacks. LB Larry Foote had a third-quarter interception, the second of his postseason career.

2008 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 23, Baltimore 14
Jan. 18, 2009
Heinz Field (65,350)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers put themselves in position to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh struck first following the opening kickoff, covering 50 yards in seven plays, the key play being a 45-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. K Jeff Reed connected from 34 yards out to make it 3-0 in favor of Pittsburgh.

Reed would increase the Pittsburgh lead to 6-0 when he nailed his second field goal, this time a 42-yarder, following an interception by Steelers' CB Deshea Townsend.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 36-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Santonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Flacco three times, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley, his third consecutive postseason game with two-sacks, and one by DE Aaron Smith. Along with Polamalu and Townsend, S Tyrone Carter had the Steelers' other interception. S Ryan Clark forced a fumble near the end of regulation which was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons.

2010 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 31, Baltimore 24
Jan. 15, 2011
Heinz Field (64,879)

PITTSBURGH — Down 14 points at halftime, the Steelers rallied to score 24 second-half points to beat the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. With the victory, Pittsburgh improved to 3-0 all-time against the Ravens in the postseason. The Steelers advanced to their 15th AFC Championship game since 1970 and for the fifth time since 2001.

The Steelers got off to a hot start as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out on the Steelers' first drive of the game. It was Mendenhall's first career postseason rushing touchdown. The Ravens responded with a 10-play drive that was capped off with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ray Rice.

The Ravens went up 14-7 when DE Cory Redding returned QB Ben Roethlisberger's fumble 13 yards for a touchdown. And following another Steelers' turnover, QB Joe Flacco found TE Todd Heap for a four-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Ravens' lead at halftime.

Early in the third quarter the Steelers defense took over the game, forcing turnovers on three consecutive Ravens' possessions. After a fumble by Rice, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score to cut the lead 21-14. S Ryan Clark then posted his first career postseason interception, picking off Flacco to set the Steelers up in Ravens' territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for an eight-yard touchdown and the game was tied 21-21. Roethlisberger finished the game with 226 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Another Ravens fumble led to K Shaun Suisham's 35-yard field goal, which gave the Steelers a 24-21 lead. But the Ravens tied the game on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over with less than four minutes left in the game, and they faced a third-and-19 from their own 38-yard line. Roethlisberger found rookie WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 58-yard completion to set up Mendenhall's game-winning one-yard touchdown run, his second of the game.

The Steelers defense limited the Ravens to just 126 yards, the second-lowest total in team postseason history. The defense had five sacks, including three by LB James Harrison, forced three turnovers and held the Ravens to just 28 yards in the second half.

2010 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 24, New York Jets 19
Jan. 23, 2011
Heinz Field (66,662)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. On the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

2011 AFC Wild Card Game

Denver 29, Pittsburgh 23 (OT)
Jan. 8, 2012
Sports Authority Field at Mile High (75,970)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fasted ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions, but they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham connected on a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

The Broncos would score 20 unanswered points. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime. After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

By holding each Broncos' running back to less than 100 yards rushing, the Steelers extended their streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher in the postseason to an NFL-best 18-consecutive playoff contests.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

Super Bowl IX

Pittsburgh 16, Minnesota 6
January 12, 1975
(80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Super Bowl X

Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17
January 18, 1976
(80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII

Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31
January 21, 1979
(78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV

Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19
January 20, 1980
(103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX

Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17
January 28, 1996
(76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Super Bowl XL
Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10
Feb. 5, 2006
Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Super Bowl XLIII

Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23
Feb. 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers' NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh's favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers' lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2.TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

Super Bowl XLV

Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25
Feb. 6, 2011
Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers got on the board early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again. On the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers though would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled, the Packers marched down the field, and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17.

The Steelers, however, responded on their ensuing posession as Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line.
